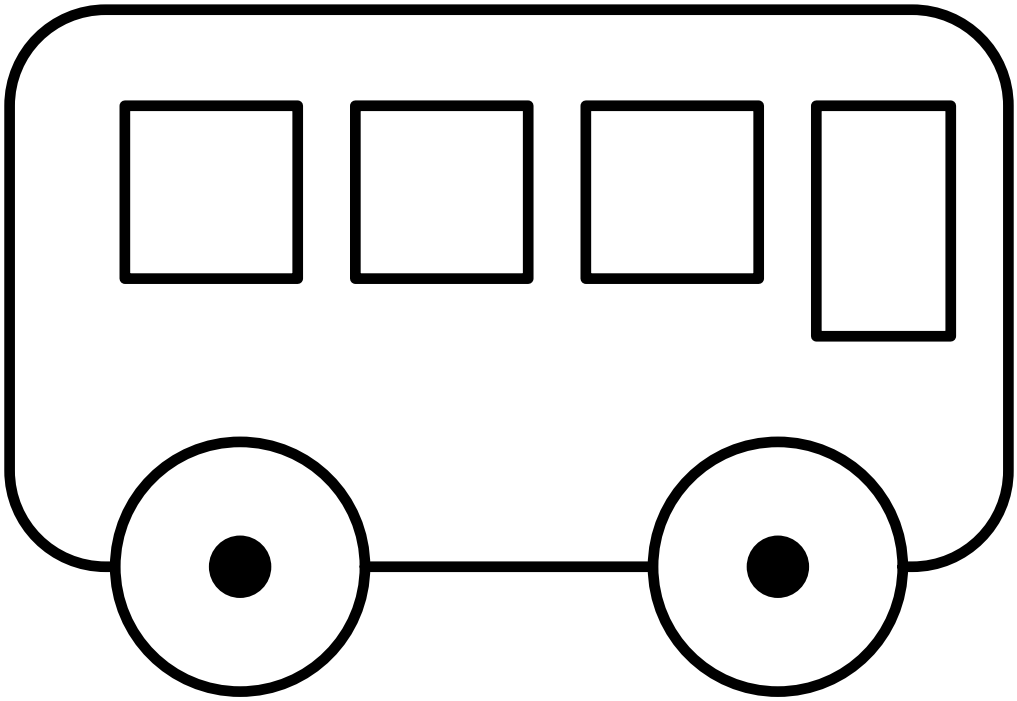
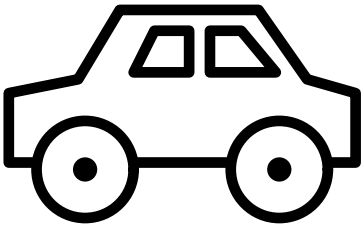
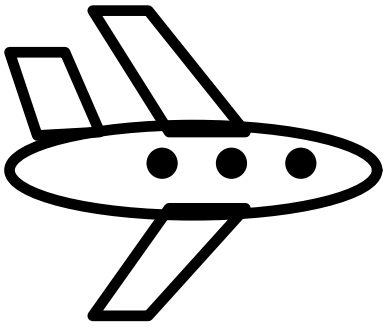
Things That Go

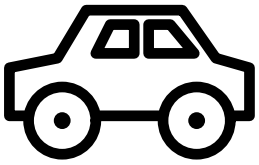
An activity book for ages 1 to 5

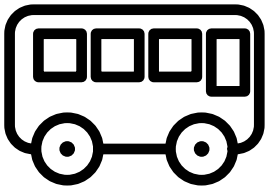


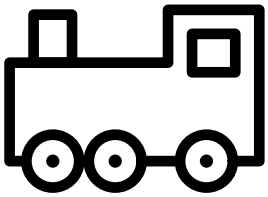


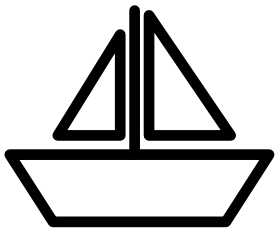


For the grown-up: Print on A4 at 100%. Pages go from easiest to hardest, so start at the front.
Suits ages 1-5.

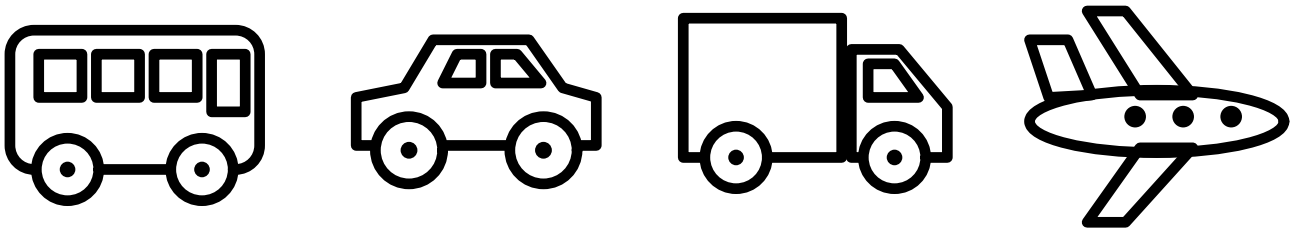




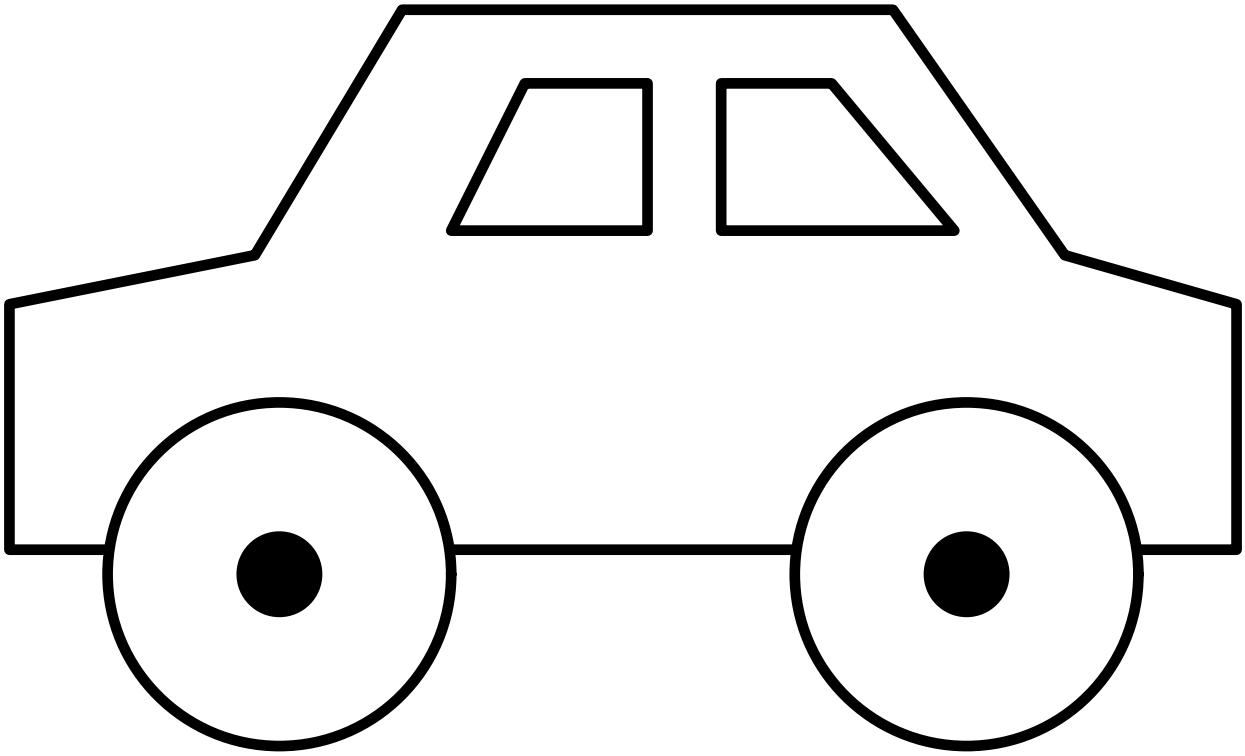




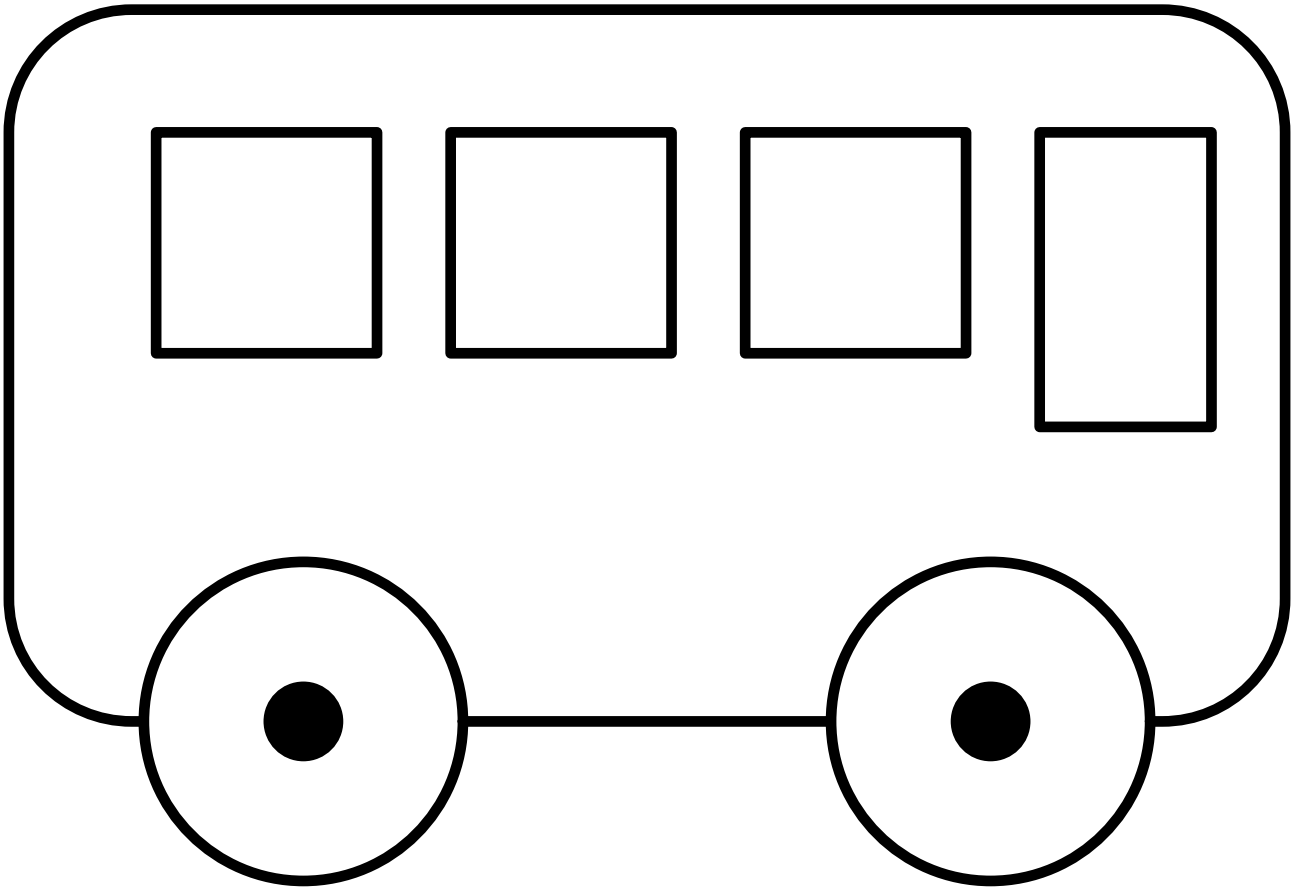
For the grown-up: Trace each road from the vehicle to the dot with a fat crayon. Any wobbly line is a good line.
Suits ages 1-2.



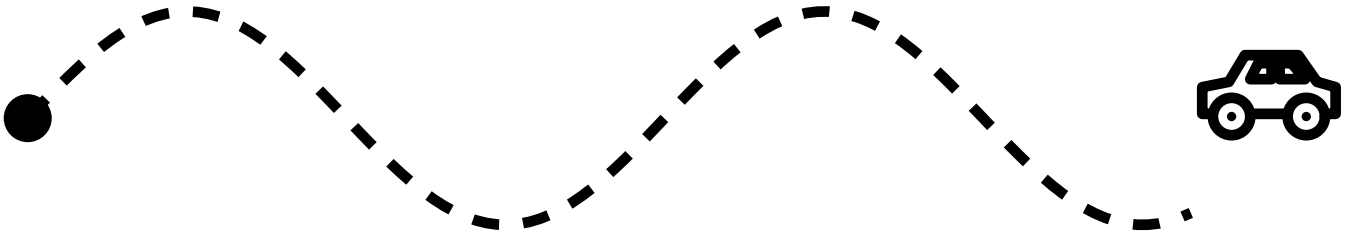
For the grown-up: Trace each road from the top down to the dot. Let your child choose which road first.
Suits ages 1-2.

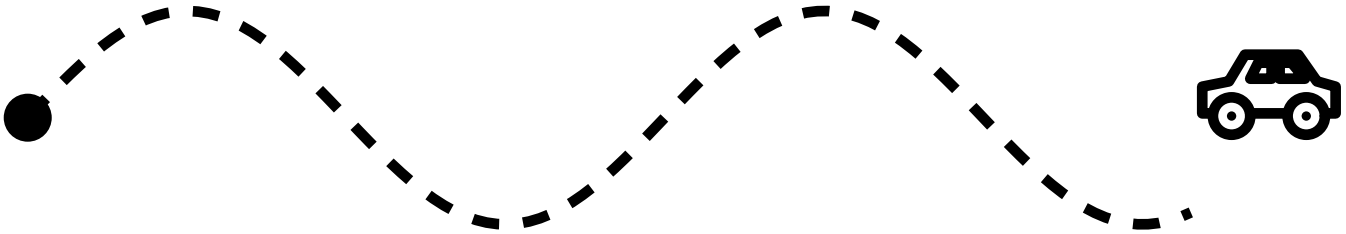


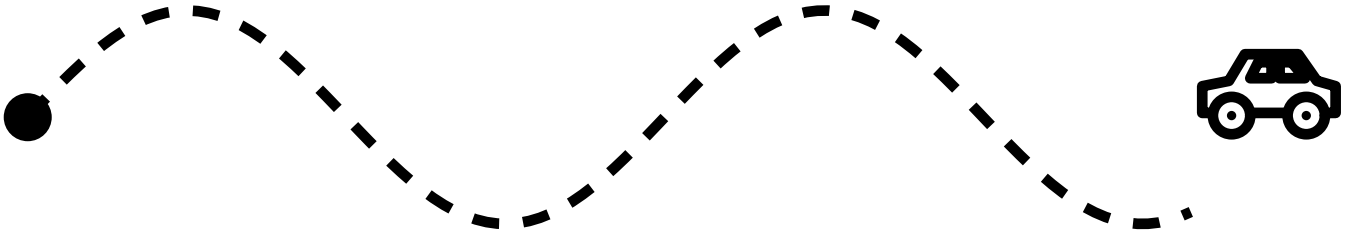
For the grown-up: Colour the car with any crayon. Scribbling counts. Name the colours as you go.
Suits ages 1-3.

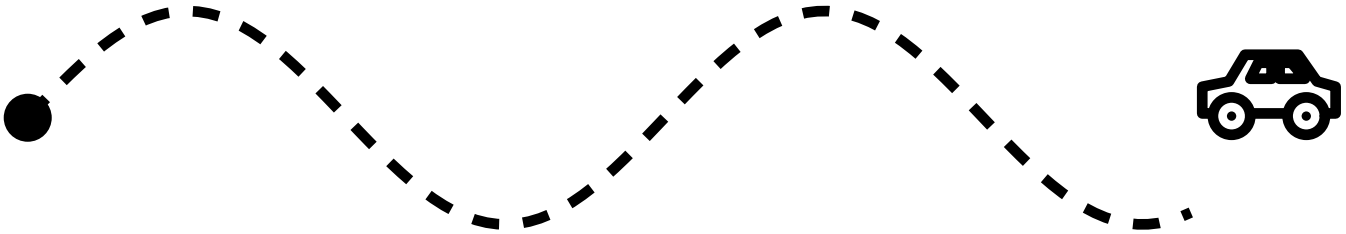


For the grown-up: Colour the big bus. Ask how many windows the bus has, and count them together.
Suits ages 1-3.

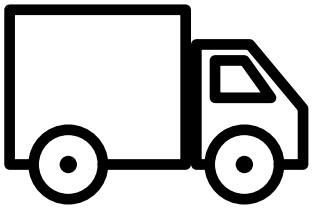


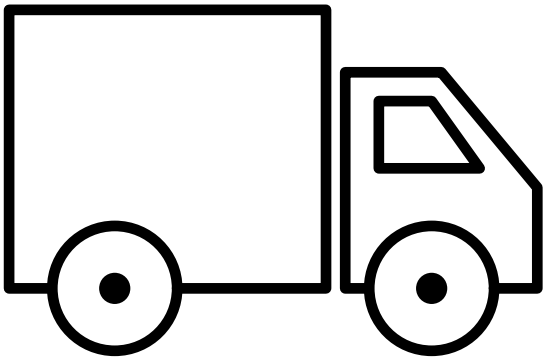


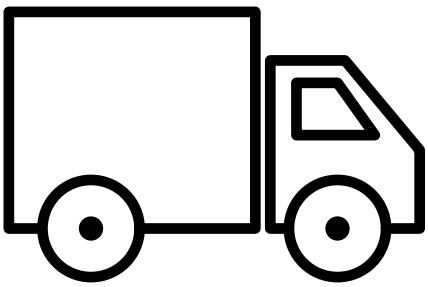




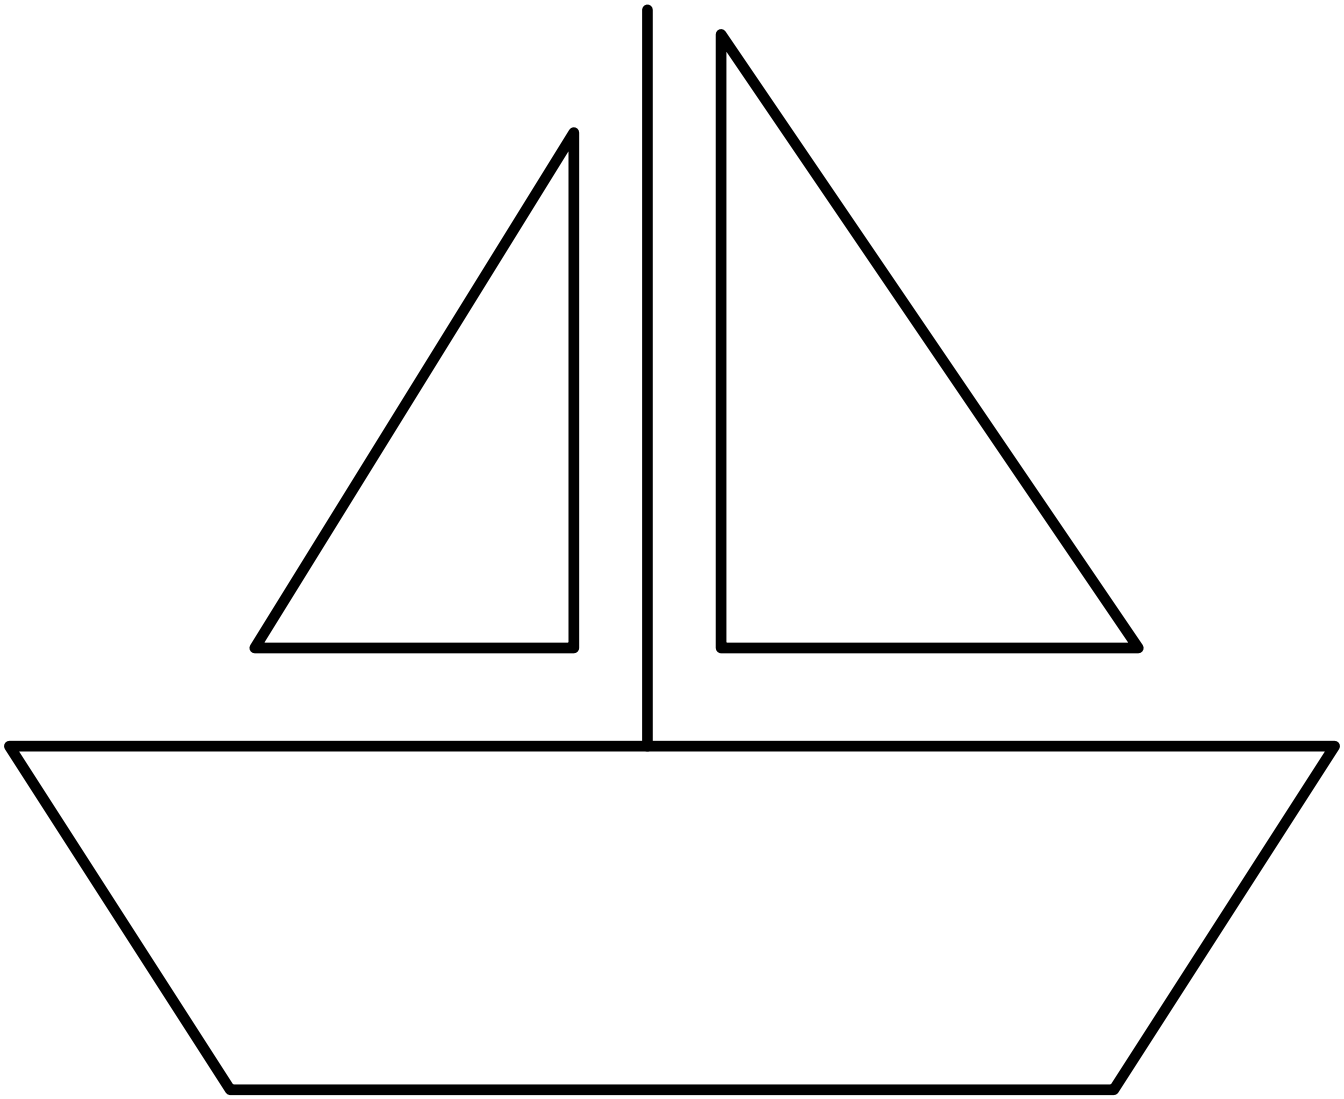
For the grown-up: Trace the hilly roads left to right. Say 'up and over' as the crayon climbs.
Suits ages 2-4.



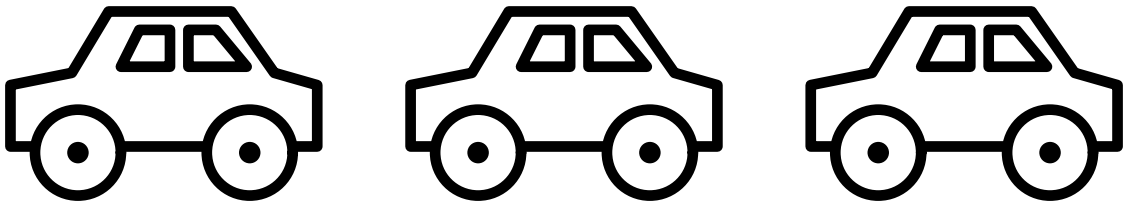




For the grown-up: Ask your child to circle the BIGGEST truck. The small ones are shown smaller on purpose.
Suits ages 2-4.

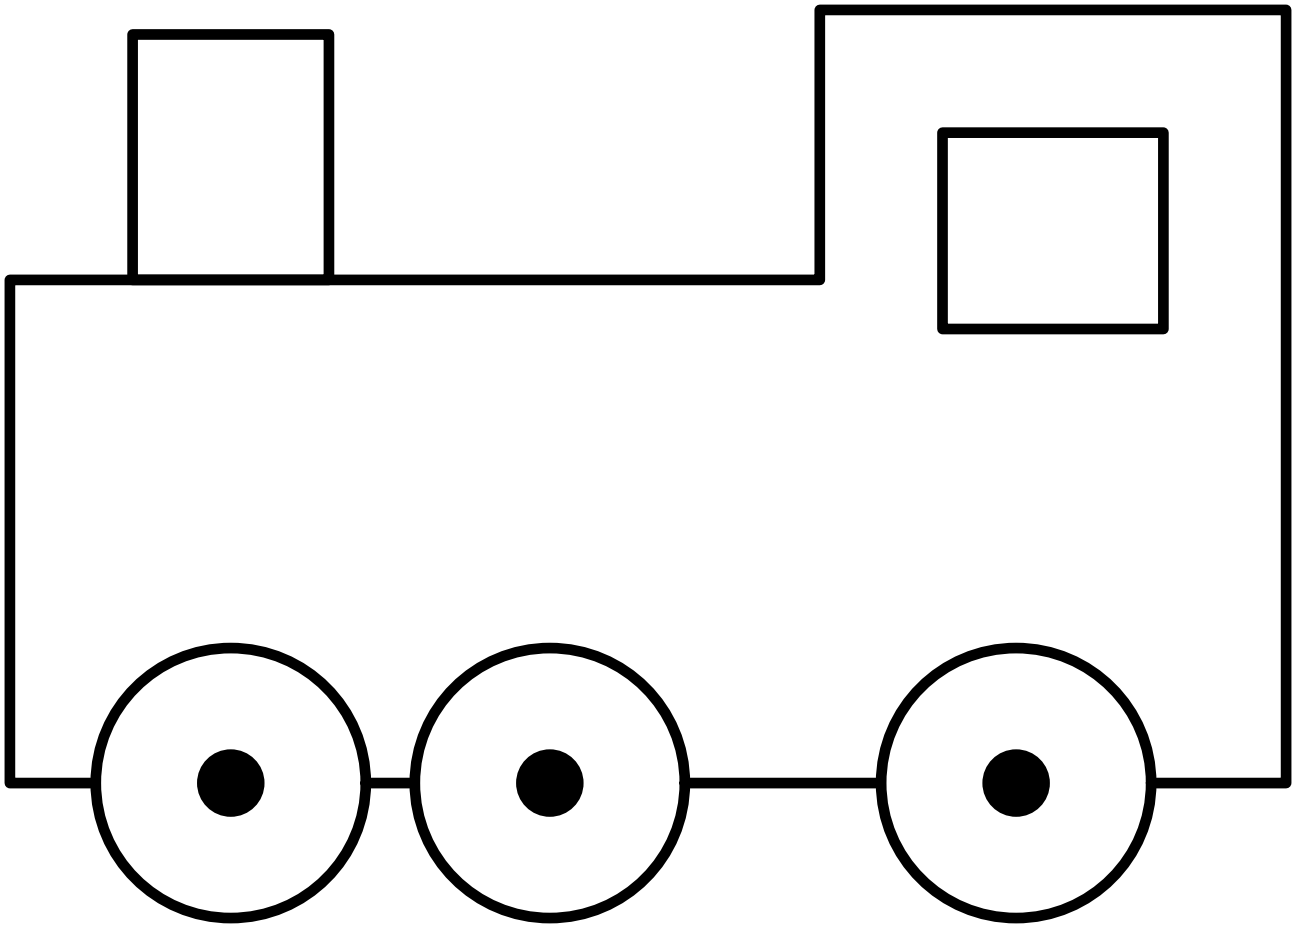


For the grown-up: Colour the boat. Talk about what floats and what sinks.
Suits ages 1-3.

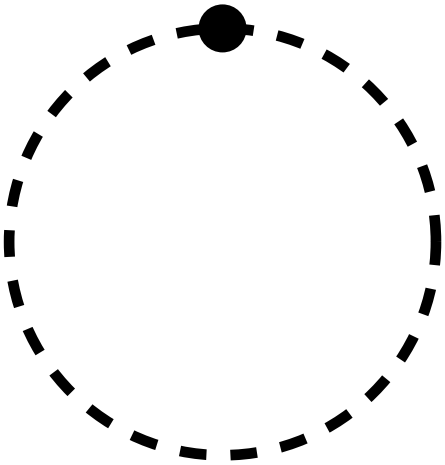


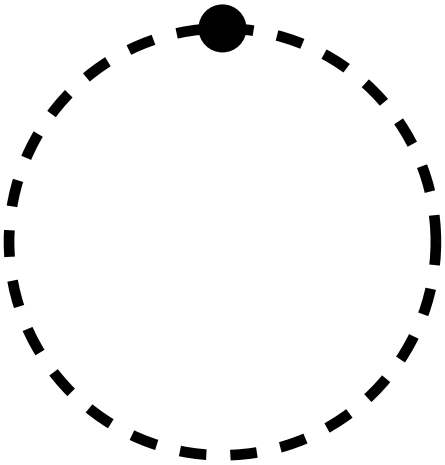
3

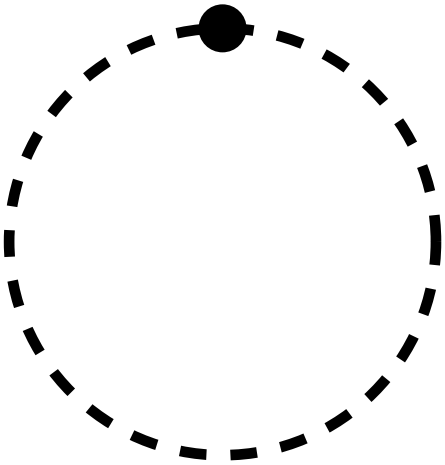
For the grown-up: Point to each car and count out loud, then trace the big outlined 3.
Suits ages 2-4.

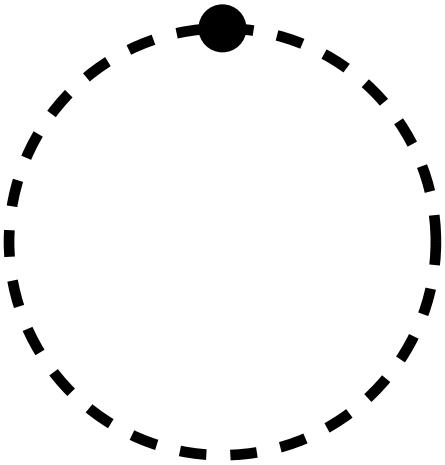


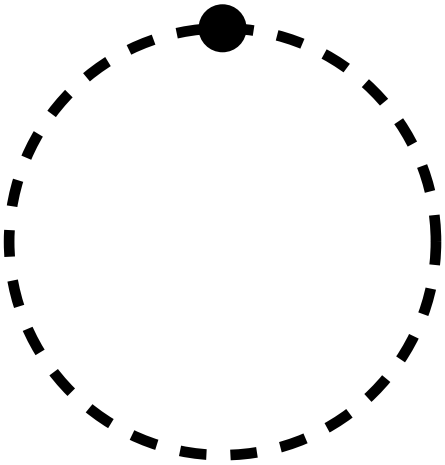
For the grown-up: Colour the train. Ask what sound it makes.
Suits ages 1-3.

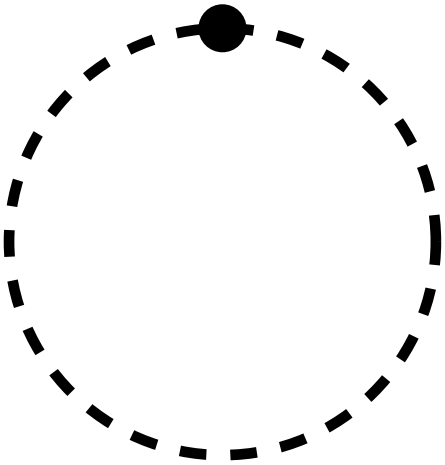




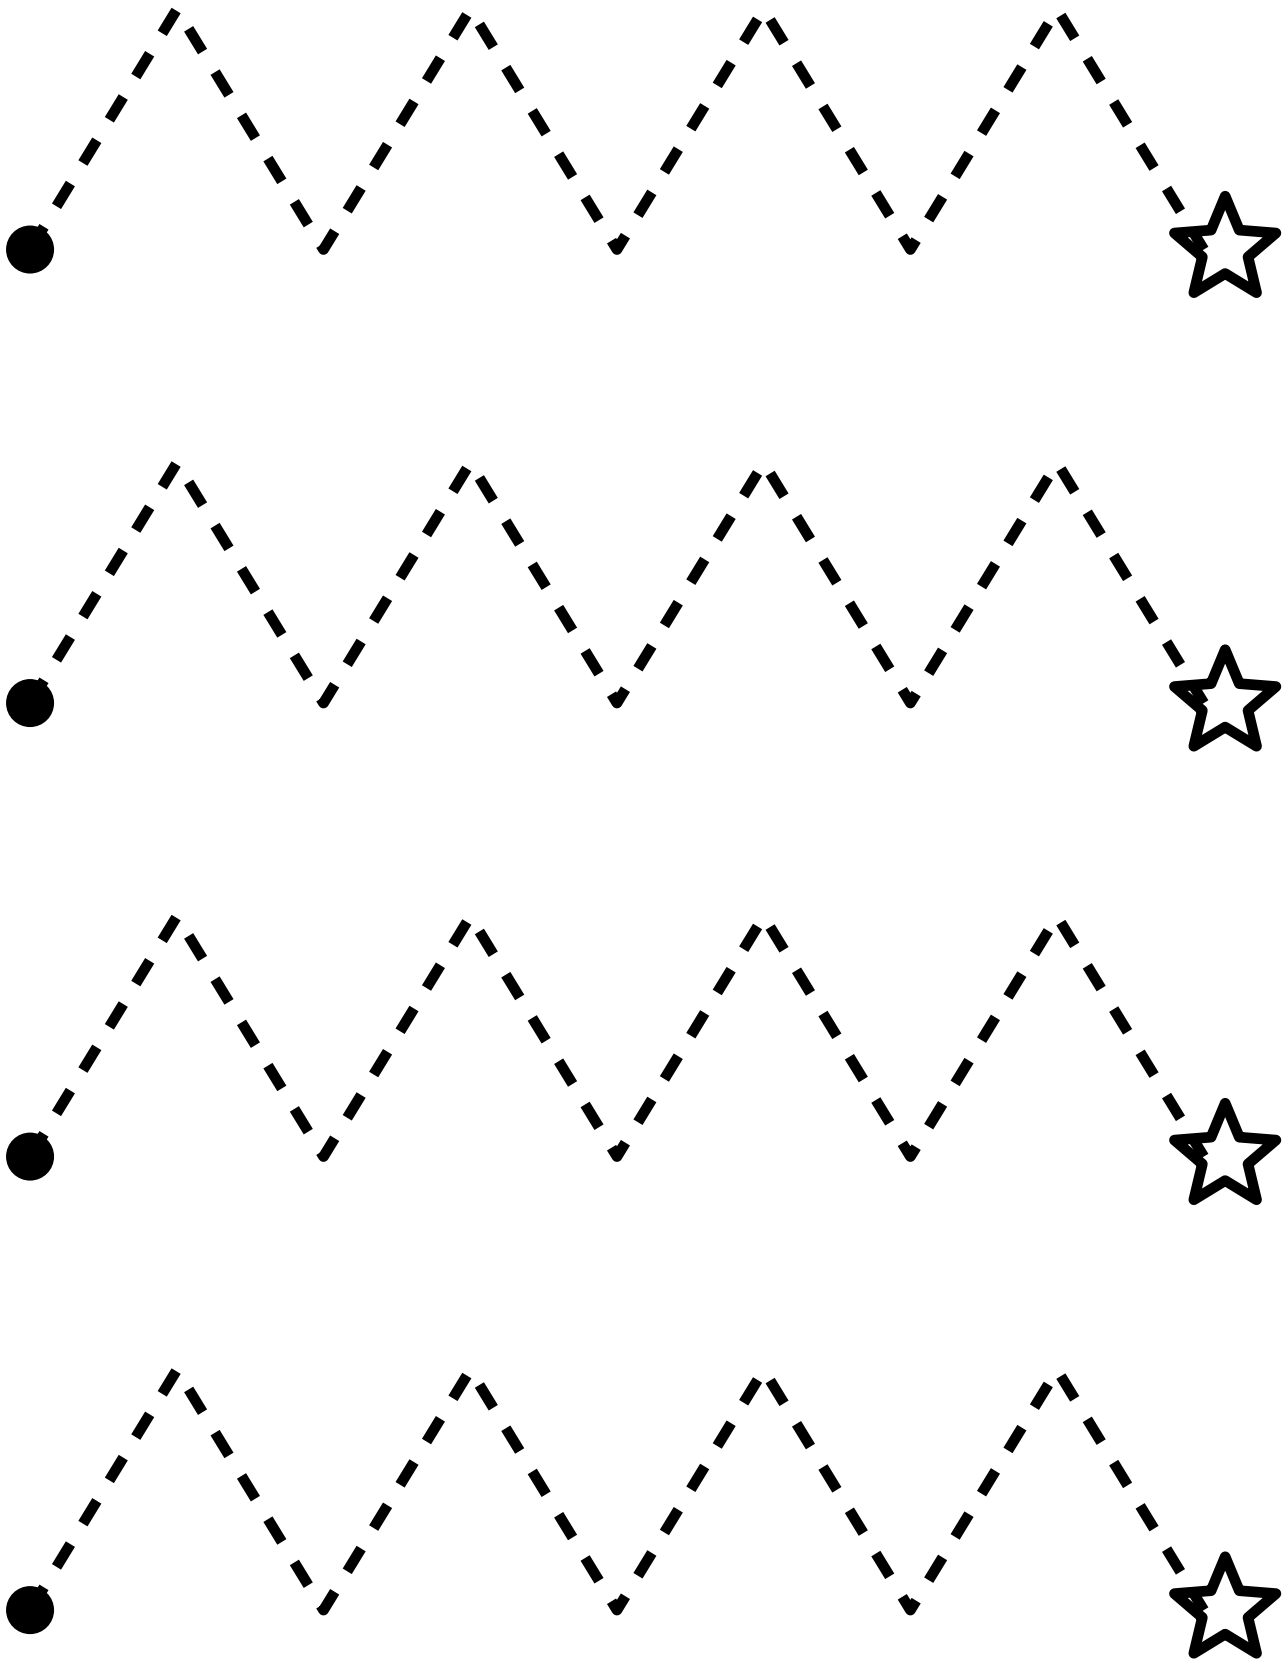




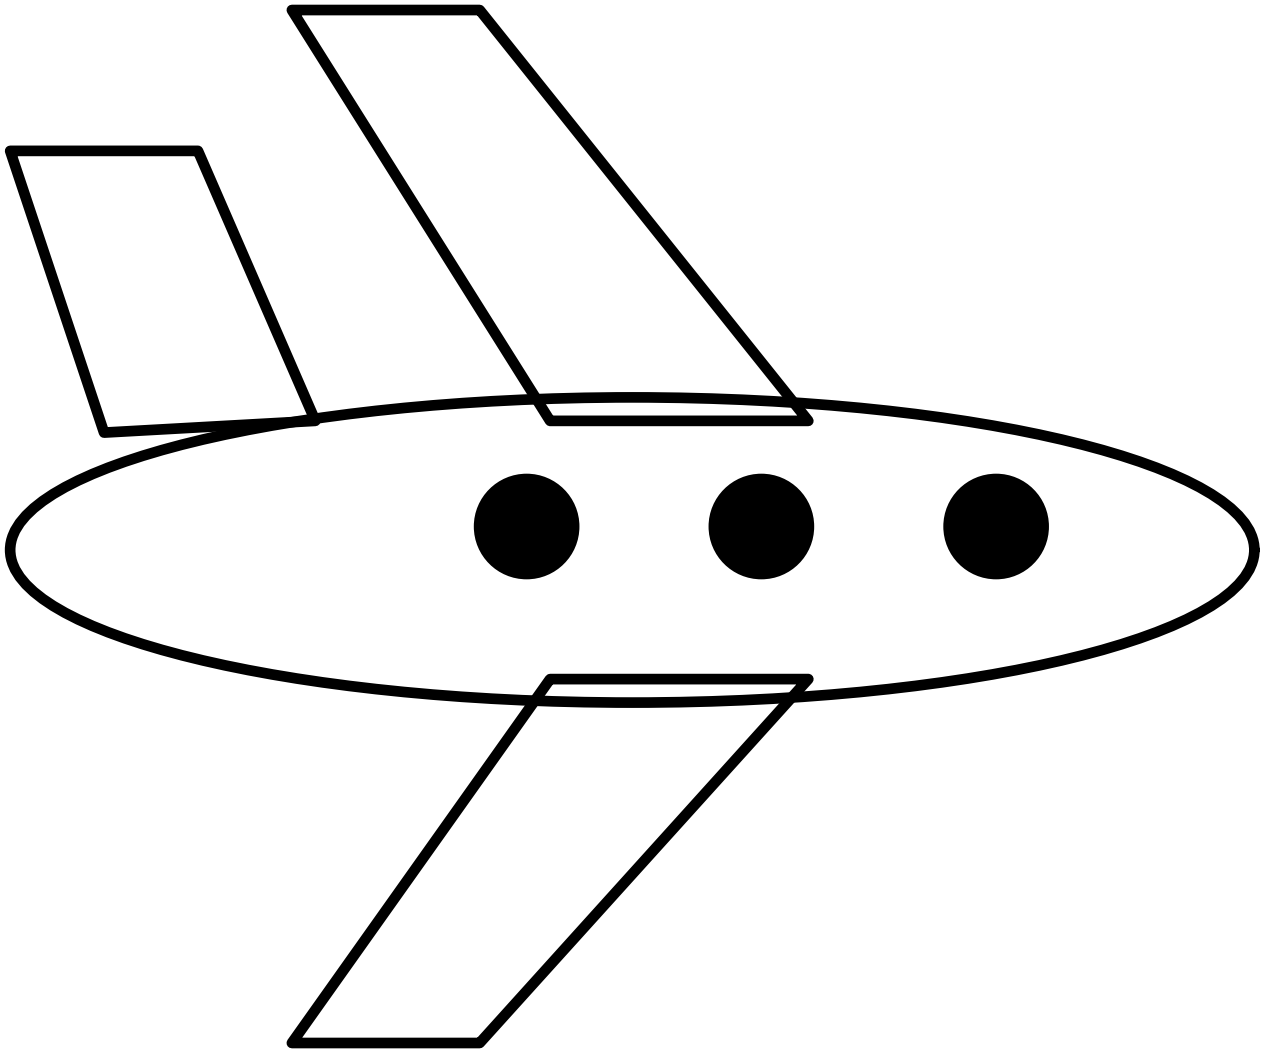




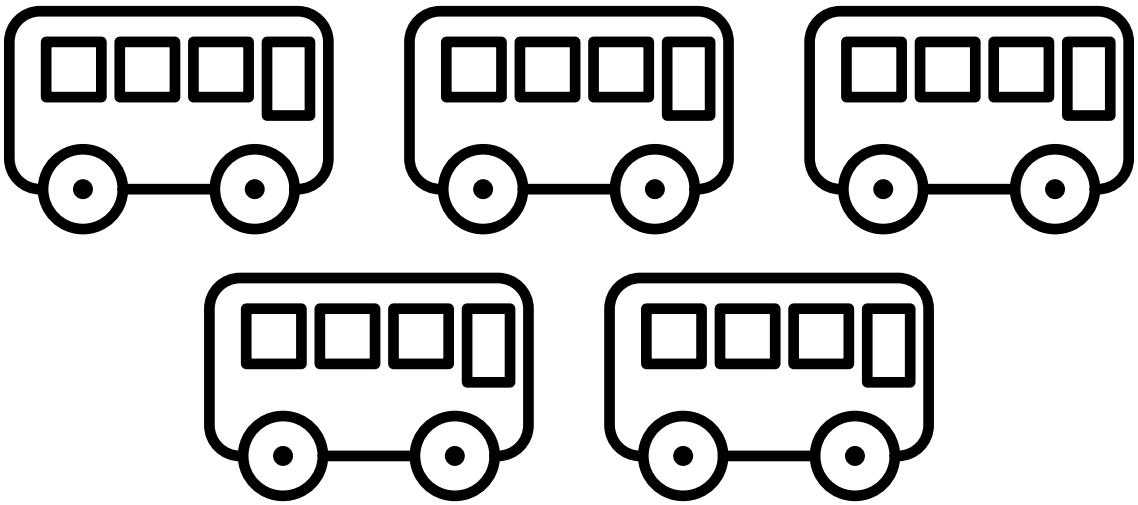
For the grown-up: These are wheels. Trace each circle starting at the dot, going round like a wheel.
Suits ages 2-4.



For the grown-up: Trace the bumpy roads from the dot to the star. 'Bump, bump, bump!'
Suits ages 2-4.

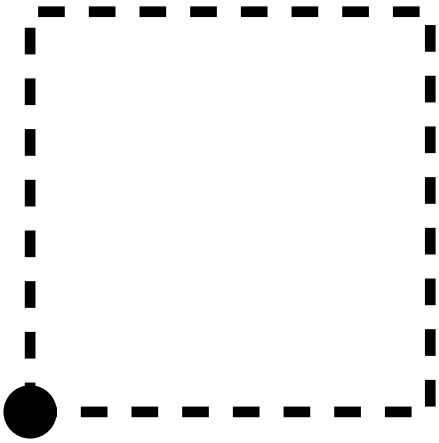


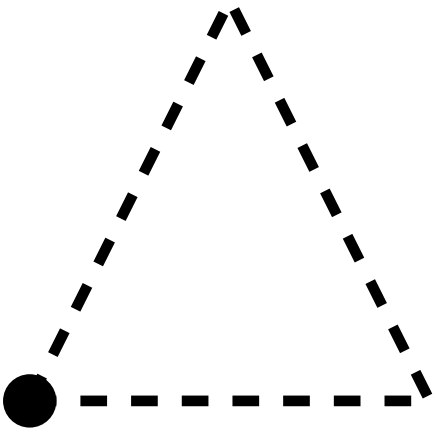
For the grown-up: Colour the aeroplane. Look at the sky together and spot a real one if you can.
Suits ages 1-3.

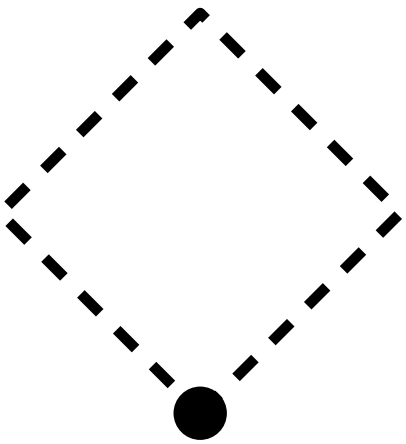


5

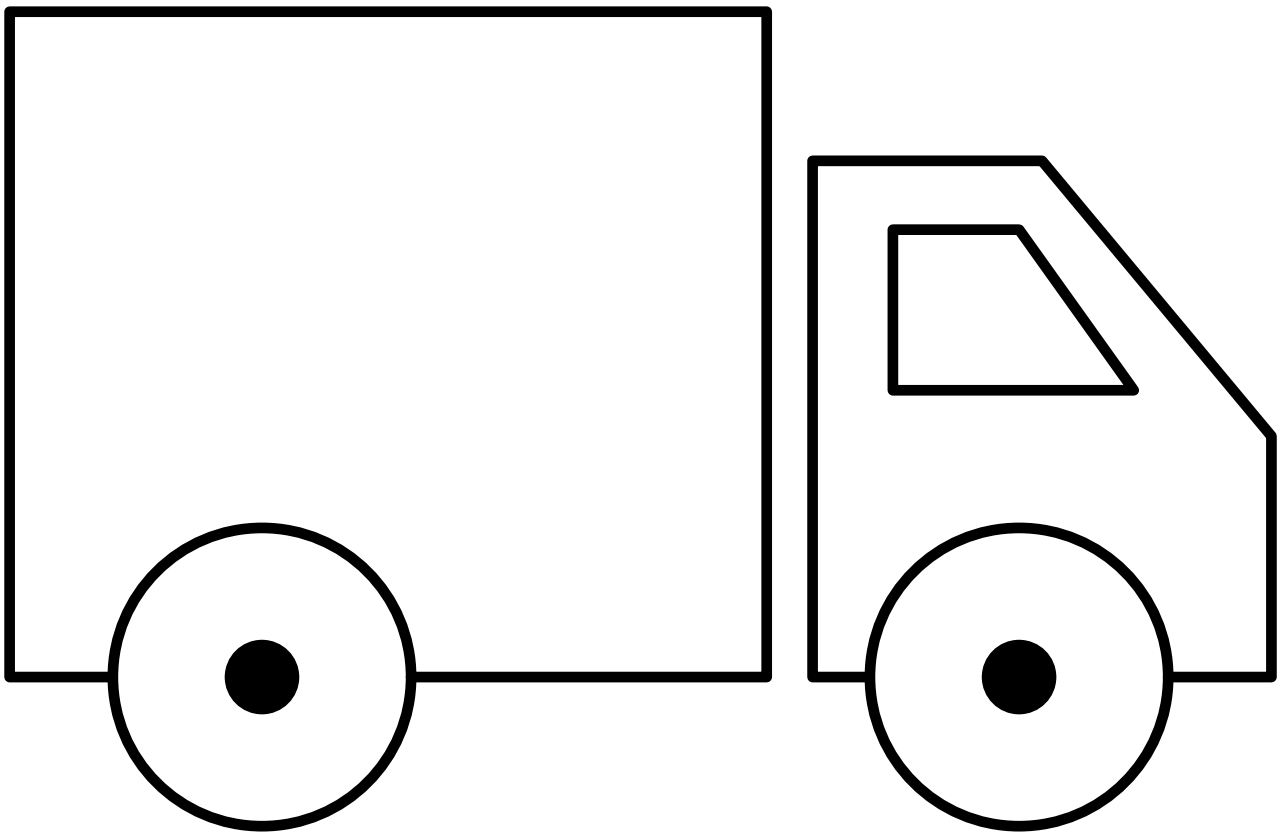
For the grown-up: Count the buses together, then trace the big outlined 5.
Suits ages 2-4.



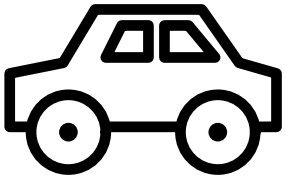


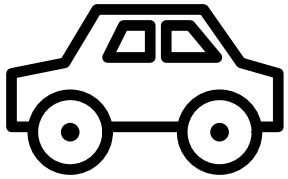


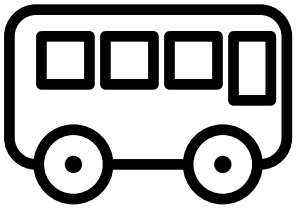
For the grown-up: Square, triangle, diamond, rectangle. Trace each from the dot and say its name.
Suits ages 3-5.

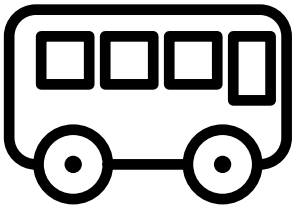


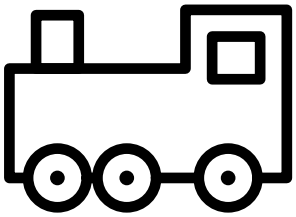
For the grown-up: Colour the truck. What could it carry? Let your child decide.
Suits ages 2-5.

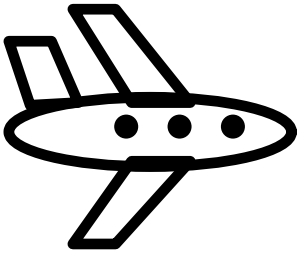


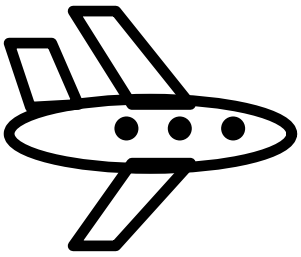


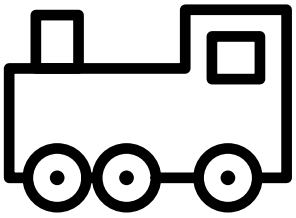




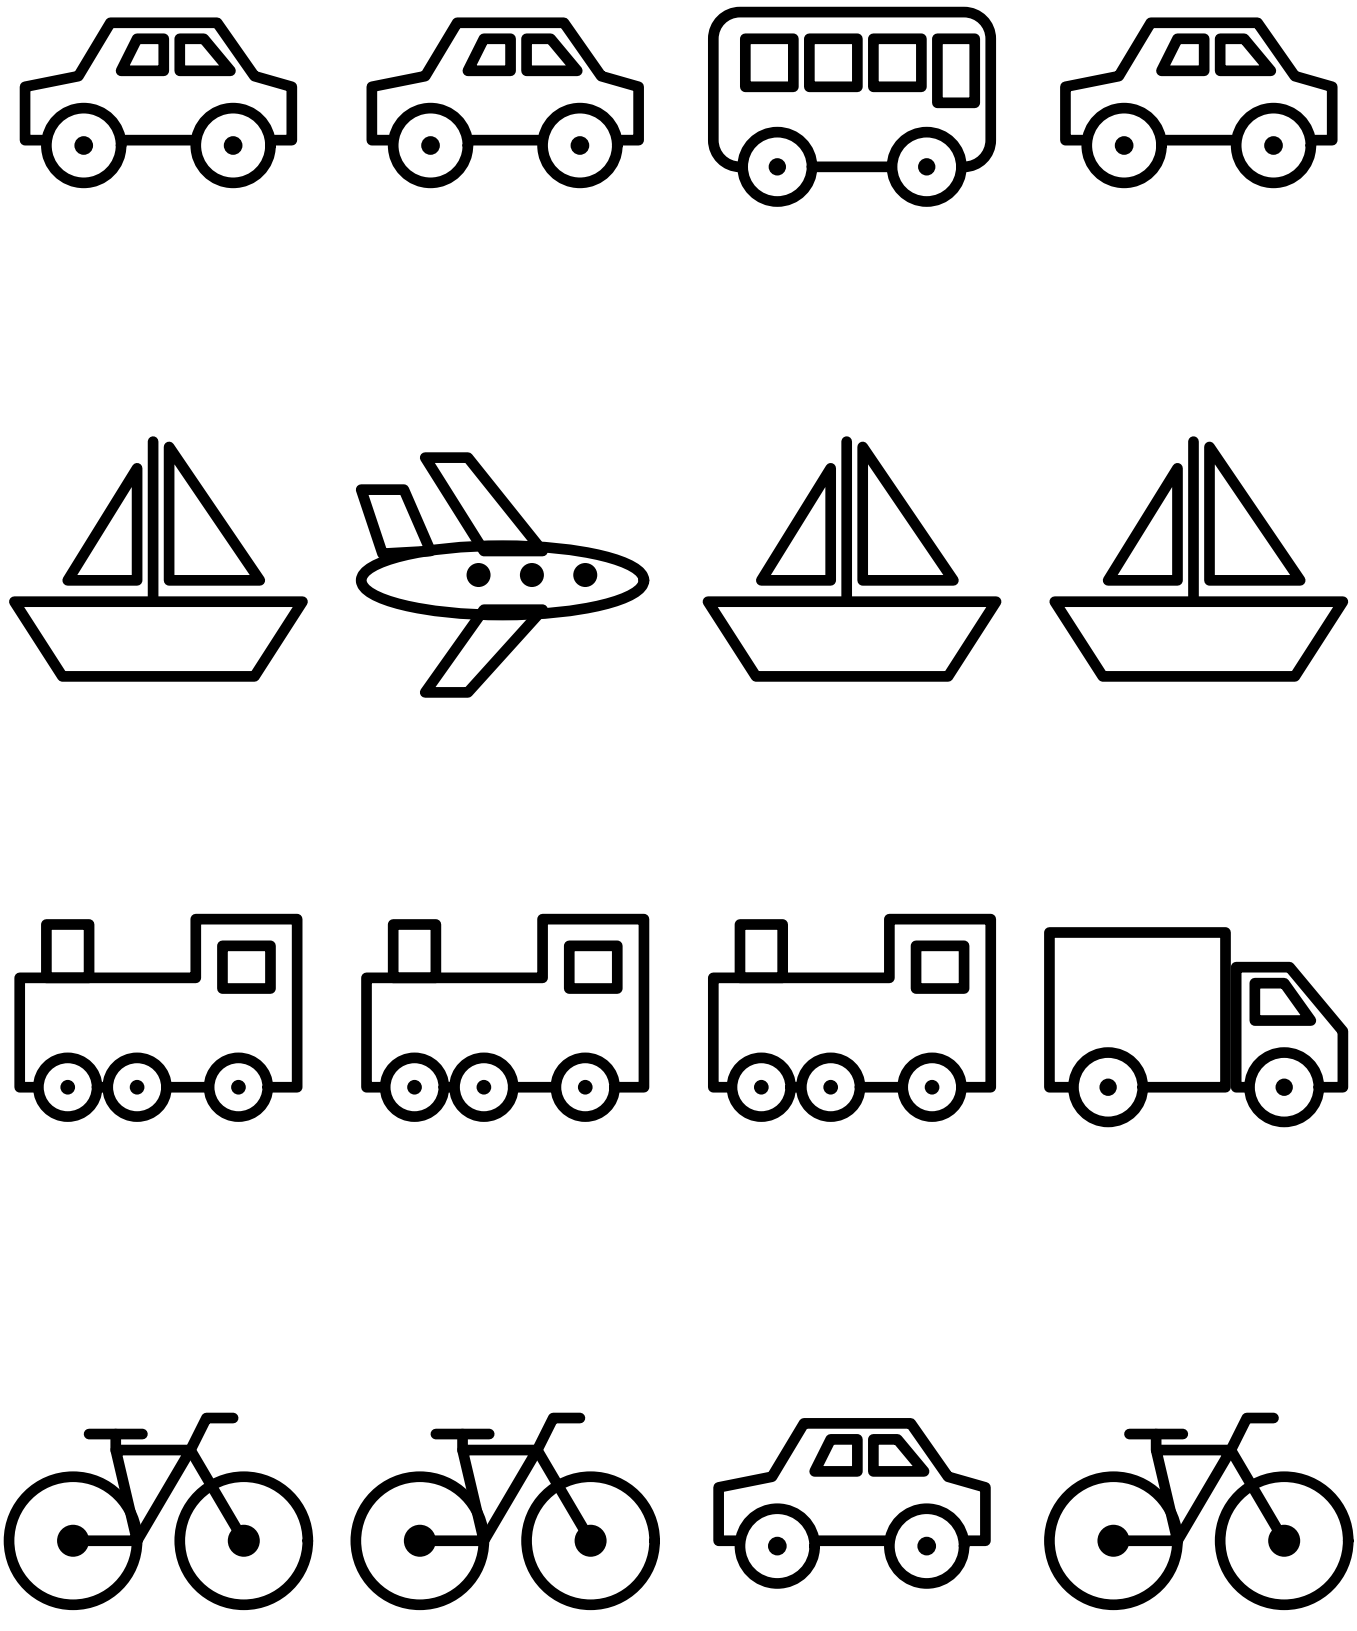




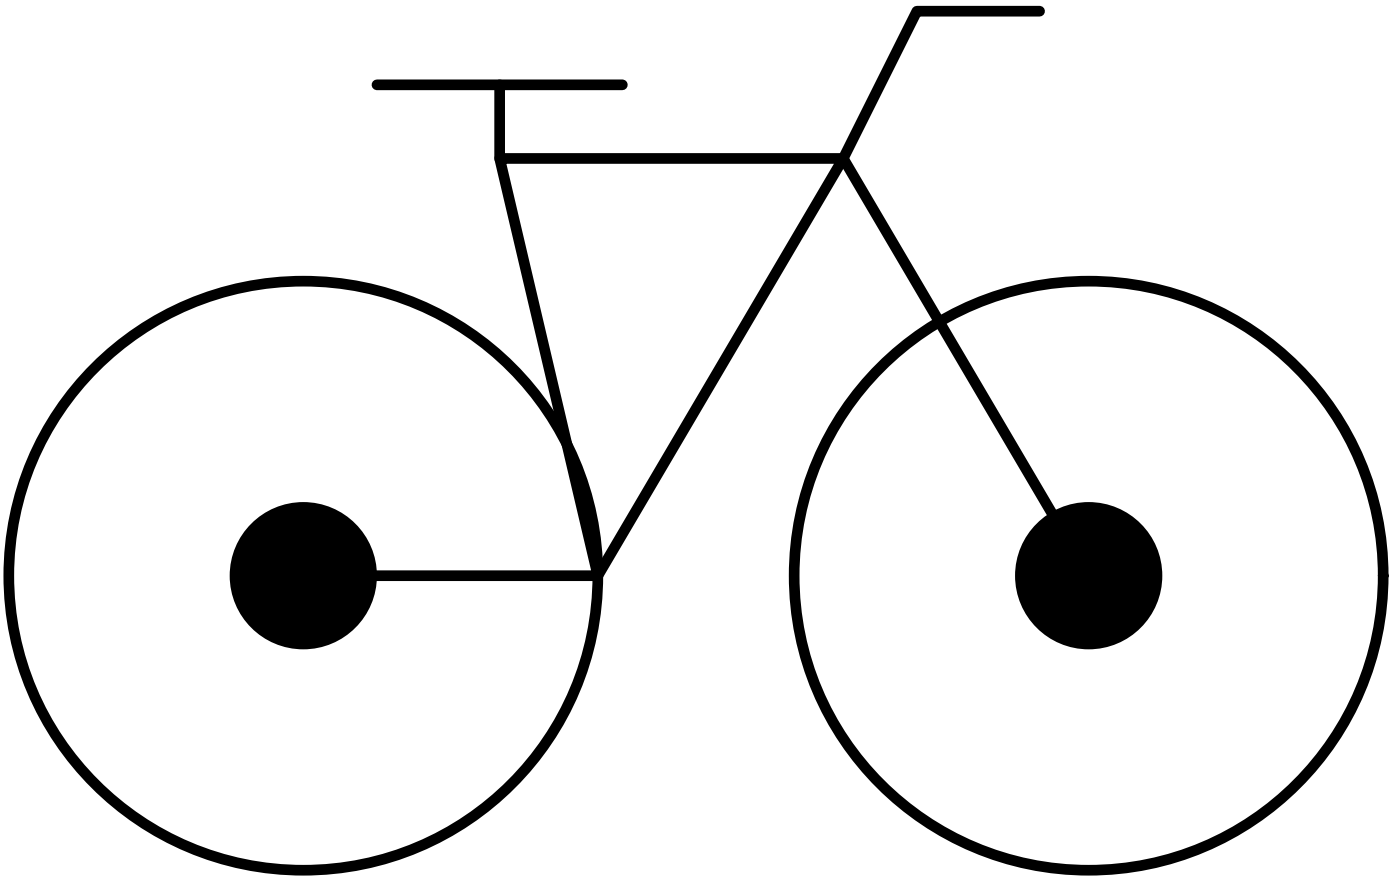




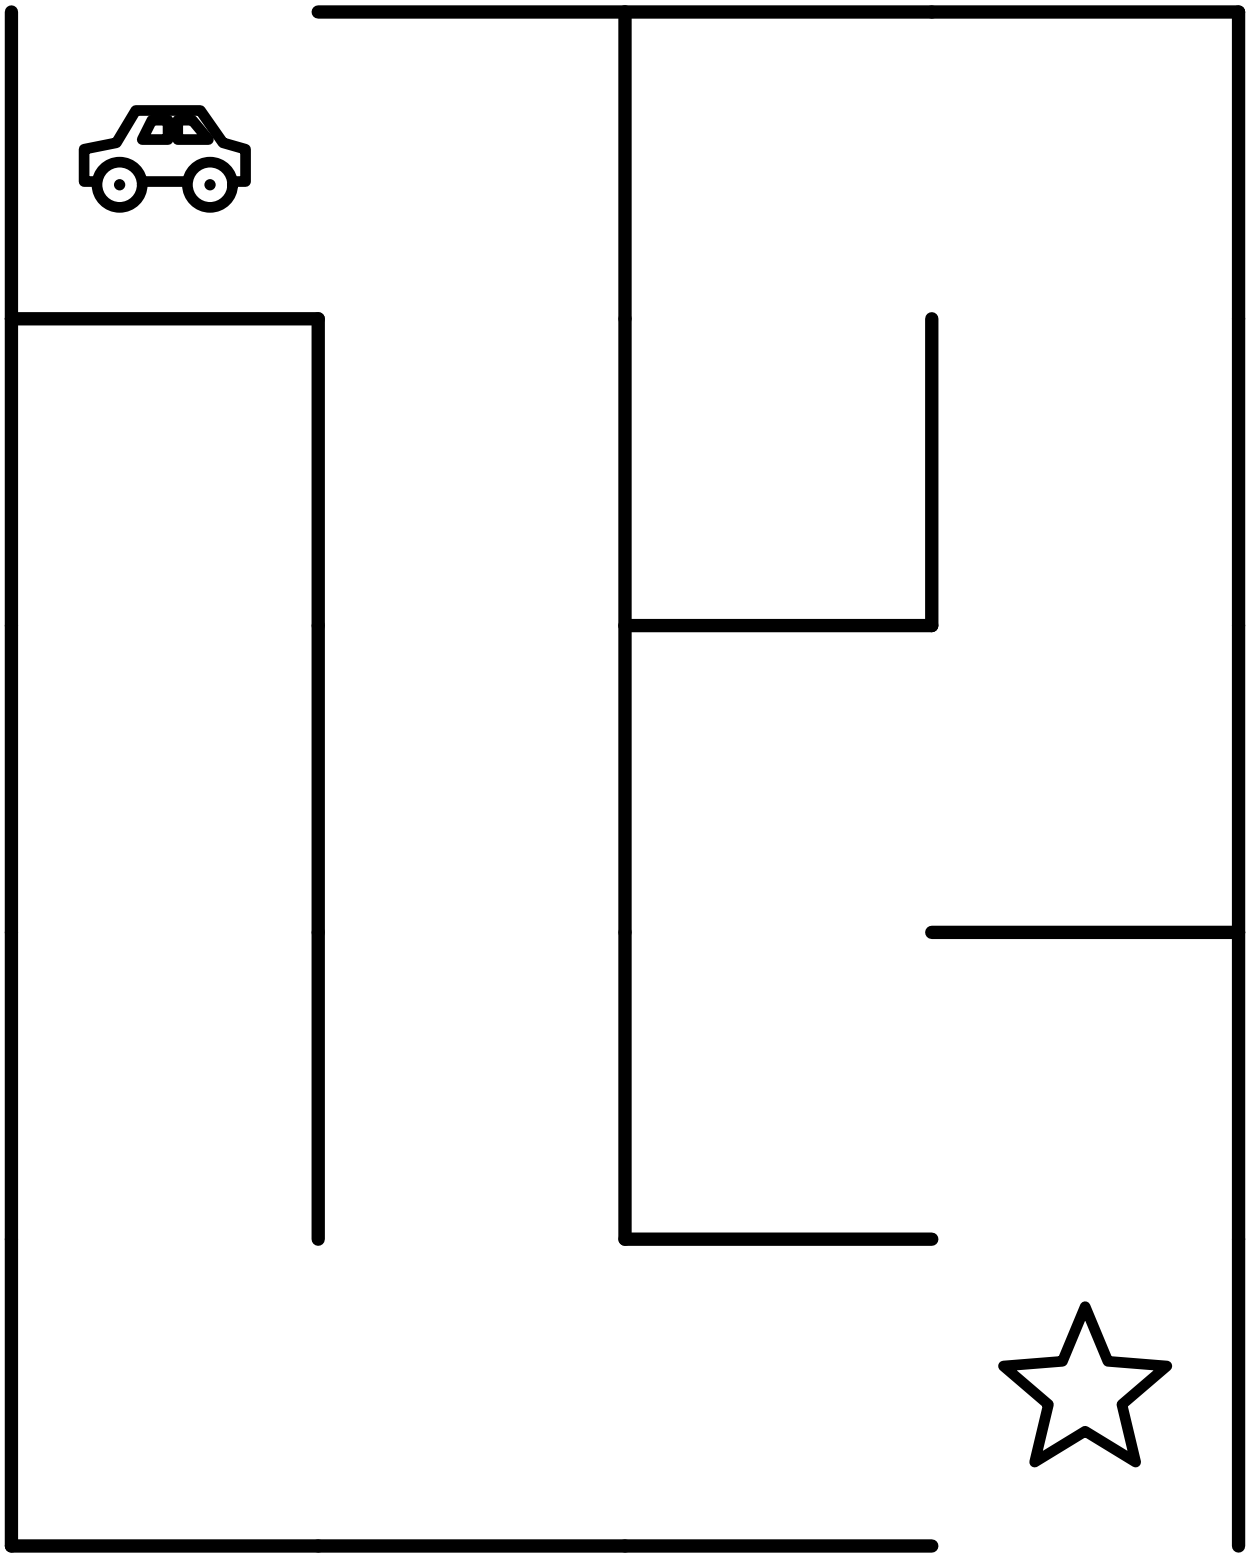
For the grown-up: Draw a line from each vehicle on the left to its matching twin on the right.
Suits ages 3-4.



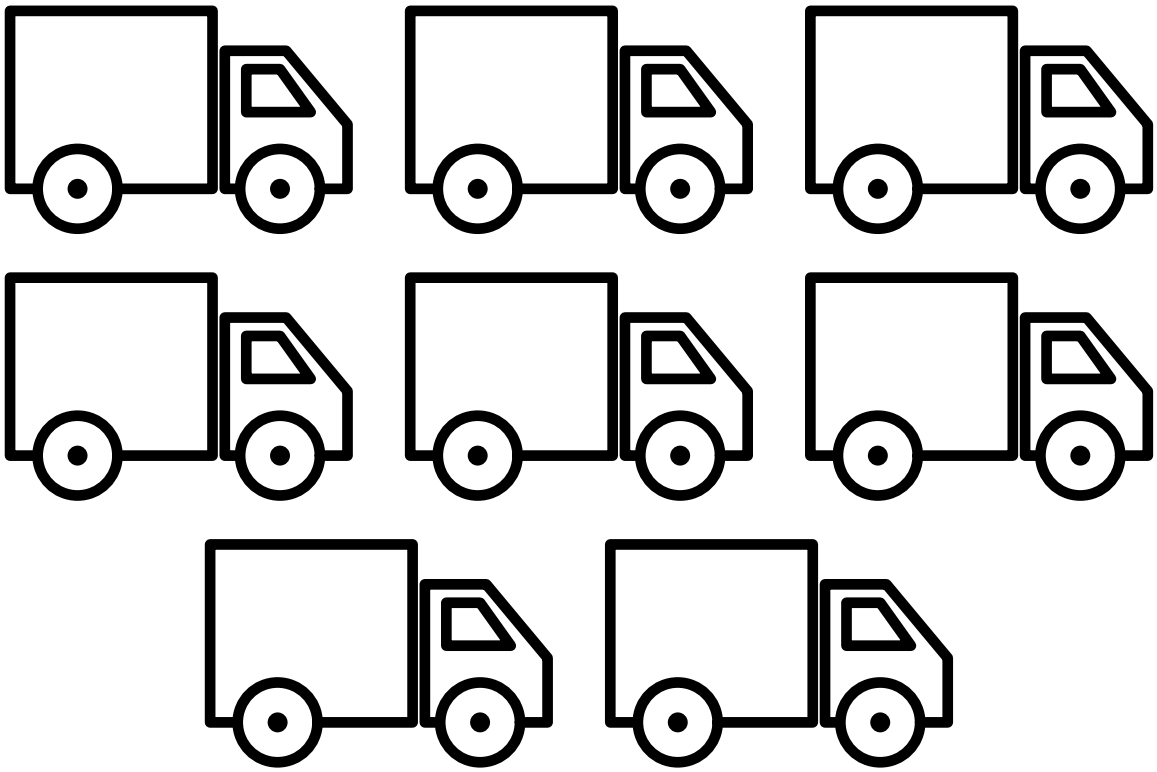
For the grown-up: Which one is different? Ask your child to circle it. Four rows, one odd vehicle each.
Suits ages 3-5.



For the grown-up: Colour the bicycle. Count the wheels: one, two.
Suits ages 2-5.

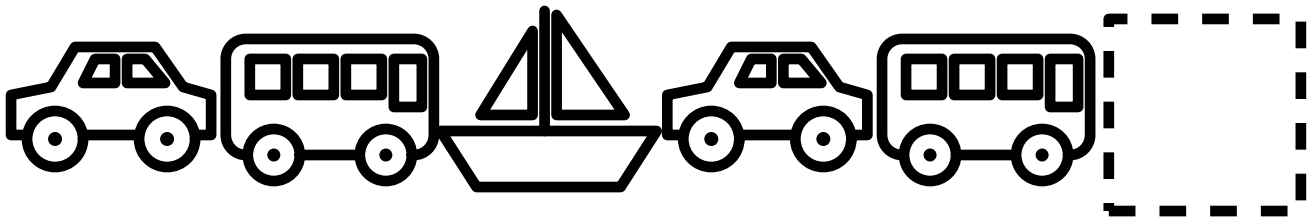


For the grown-up: Help the car drive to the star without touching the walls. Trace with a finger first.
Suits ages 3-4.

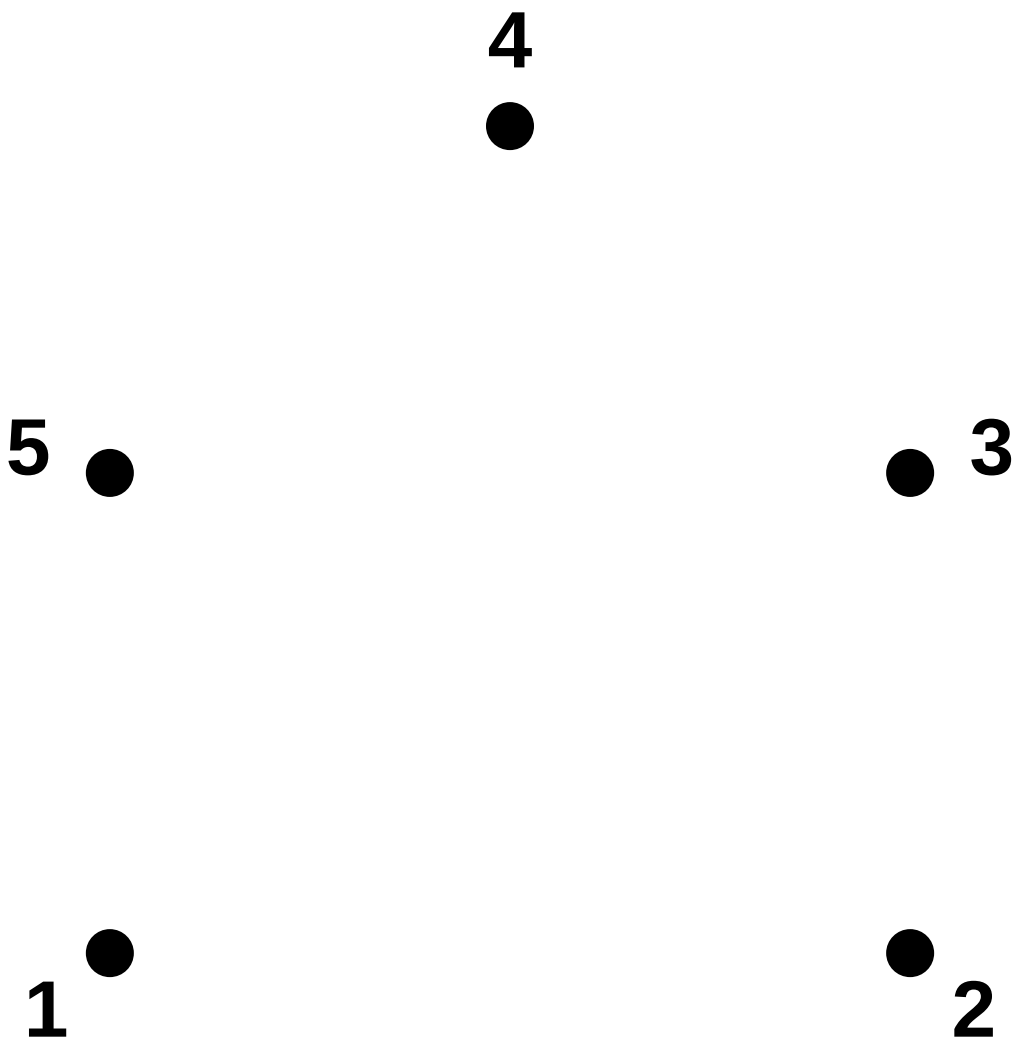


8

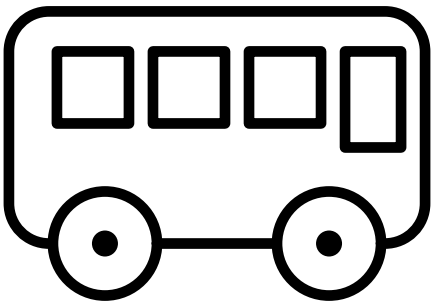
For the grown-up: Count the trucks in rows, pointing at each. Then trace the big outlined 8.
Suits ages 3-5.

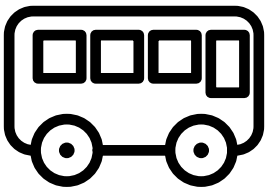


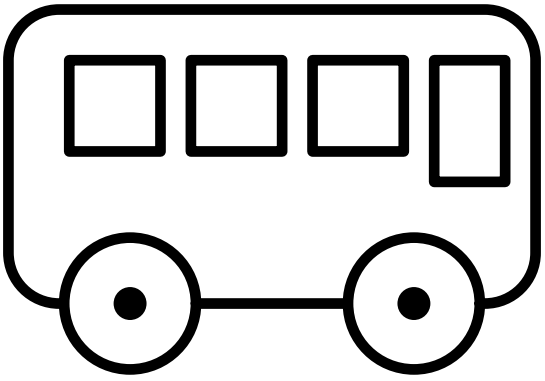
For the grown-up: What comes next in the pattern? Say it aloud together, then draw it in the dashed box.
Suits ages 4-5.



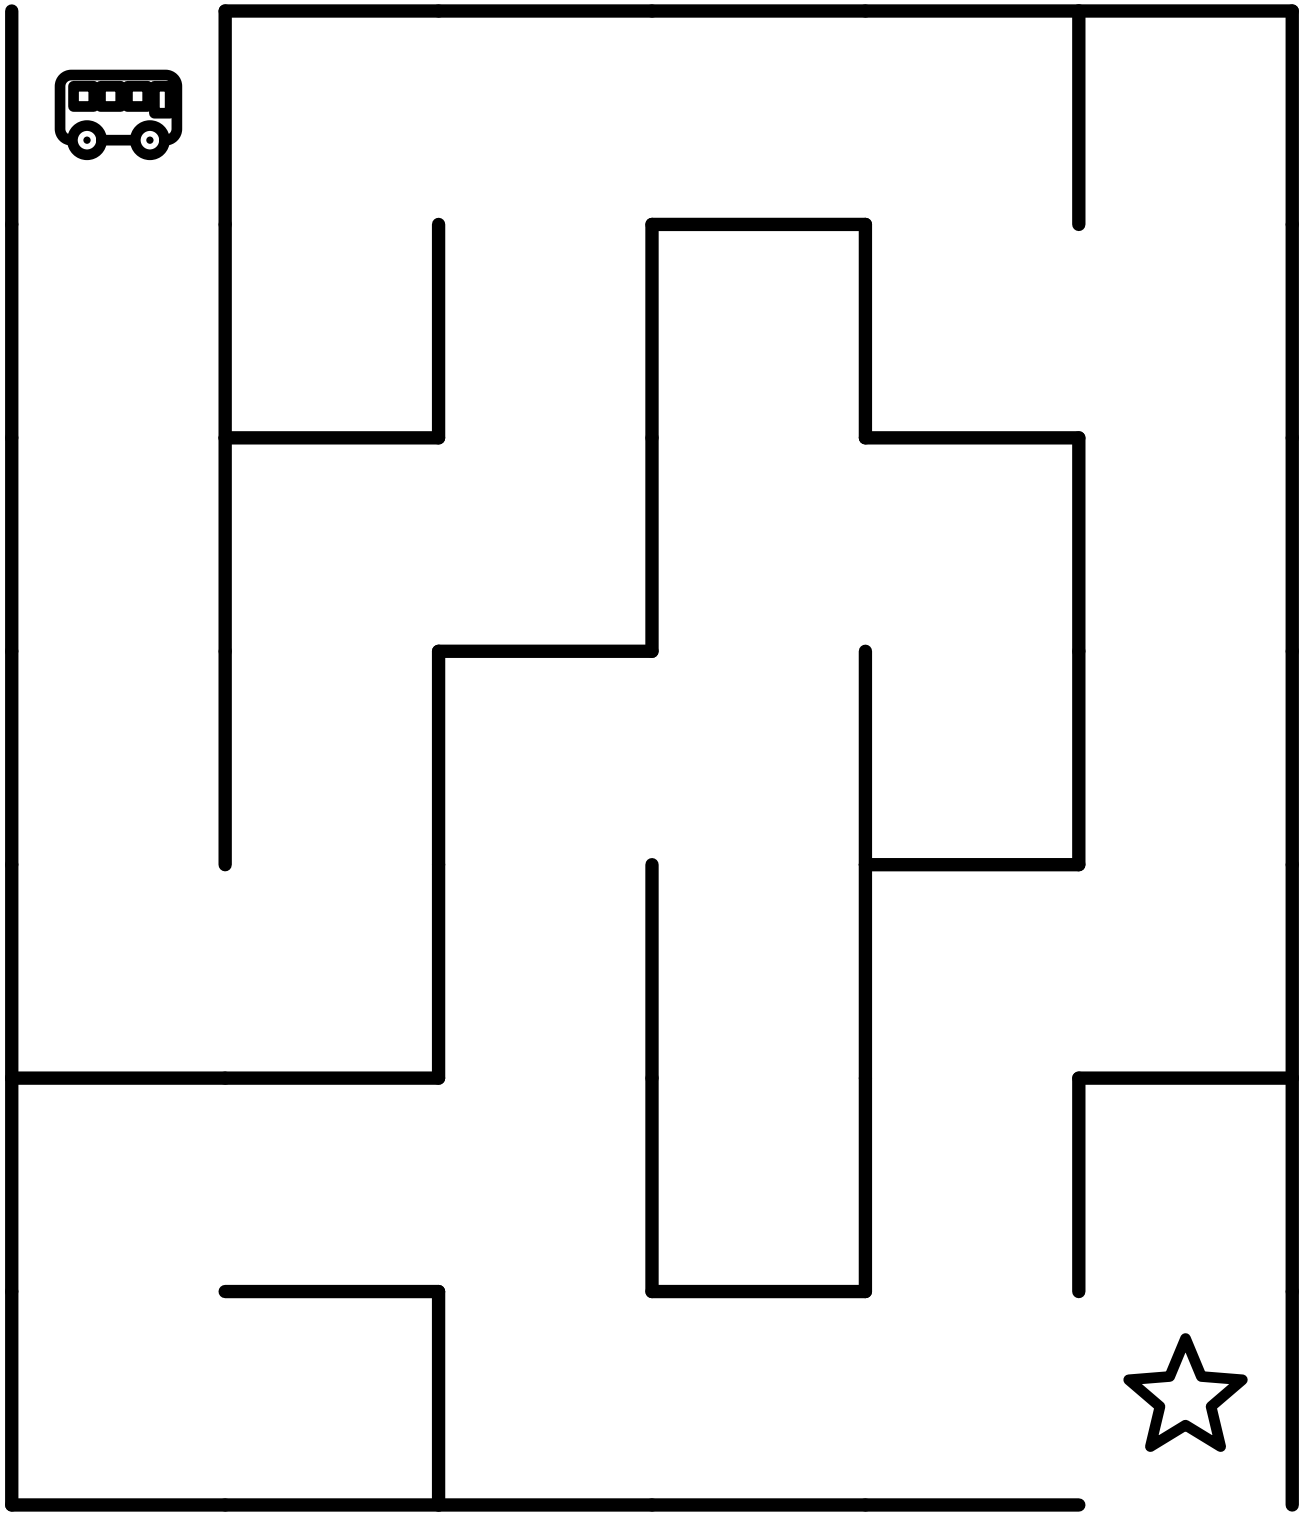
For the grown-up: Join the dots 1 to 5, then back to 1, to build a house for the bus.
Suits ages 3-5.



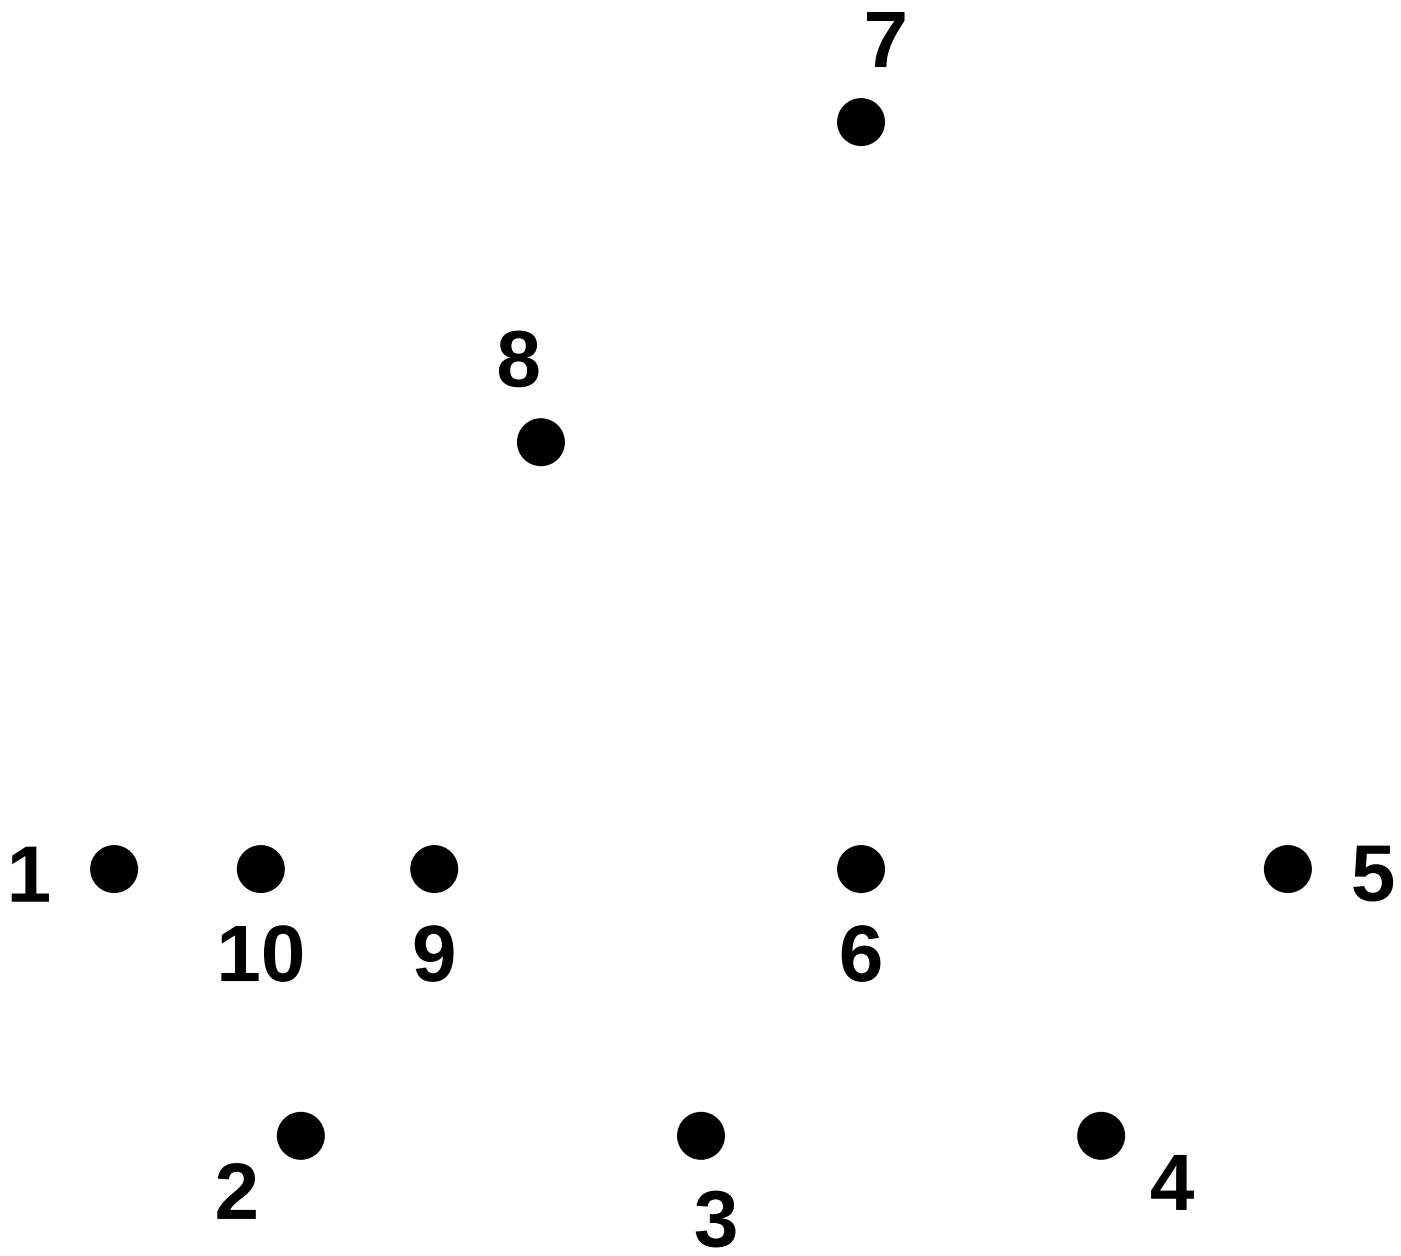




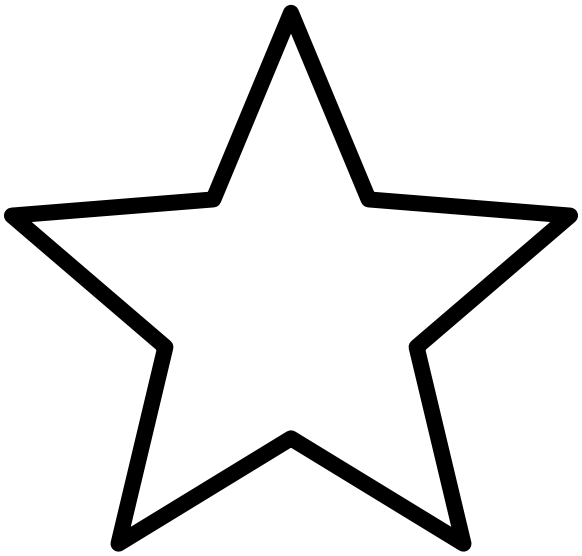
For the grown-up: Ask your child to circle the SMALLEST bus. Notice the middle-sized one too.
Suits ages 2-4.



For the grown-up: Help the bus find its way to the star. A pencil or crayon is good for this one.
Suits ages 4-5.

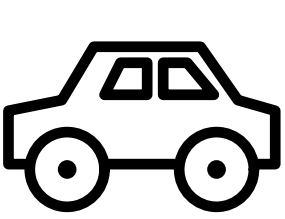


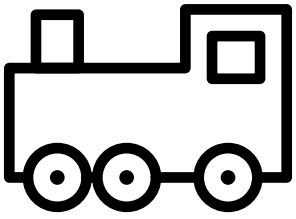
For the grown-up: Join the dots 1 to 10, then back to 1, to sail the boat.
Suits ages 4-5.

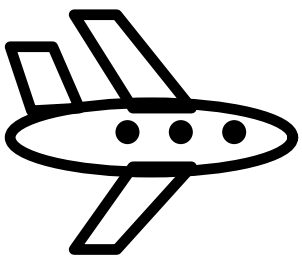


Well done!

_____







For the grown-up: Write your child's name on the line and the date below, then stick it on the fridge.
