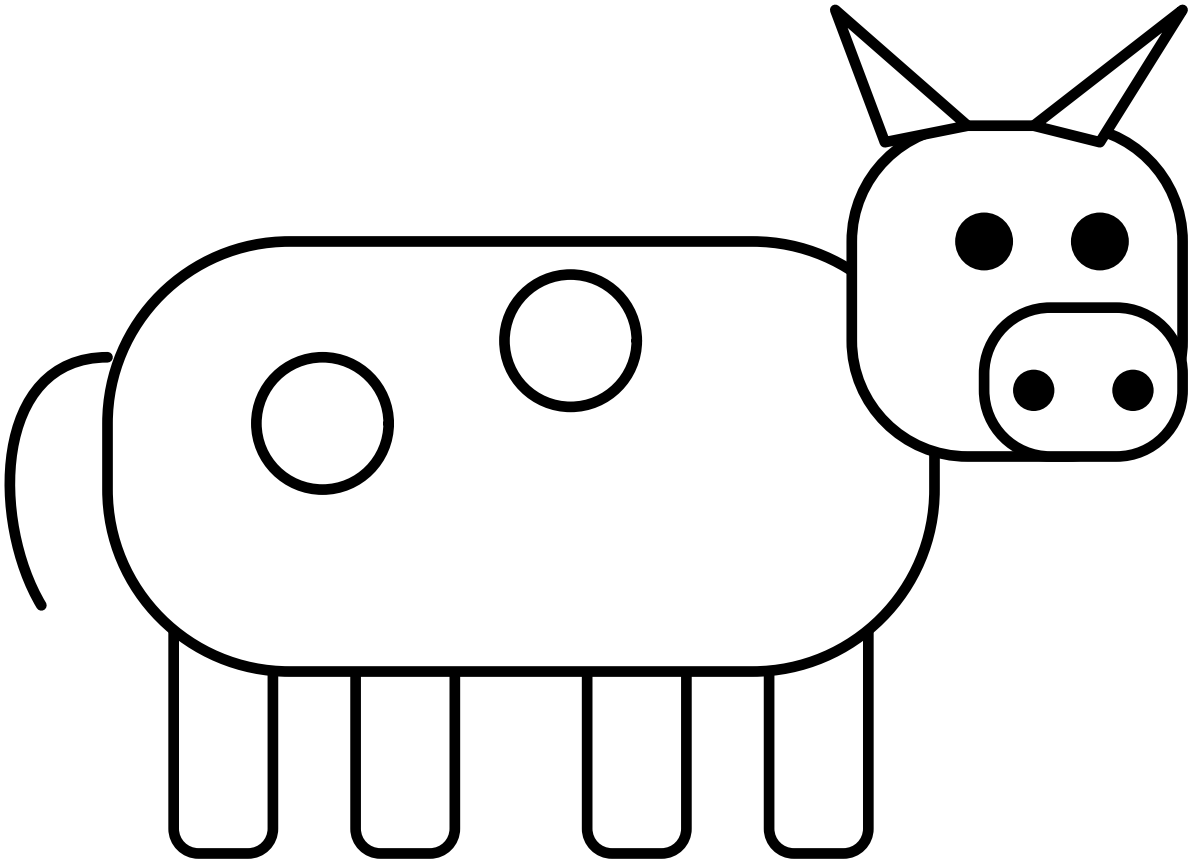
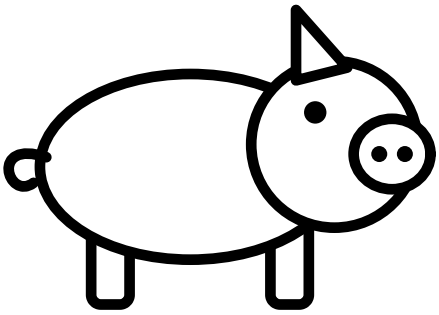
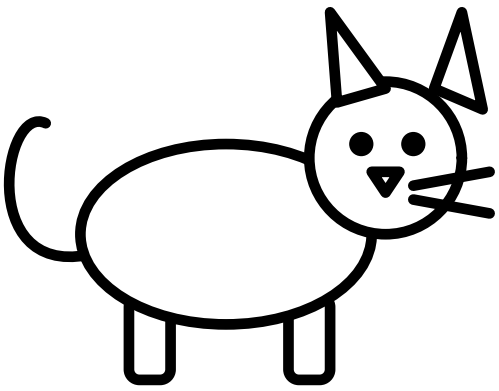
On the Farm

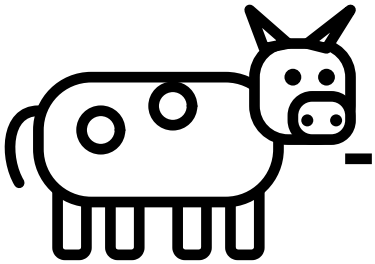
An activity book for ages 1 to 5

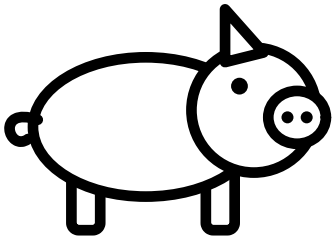


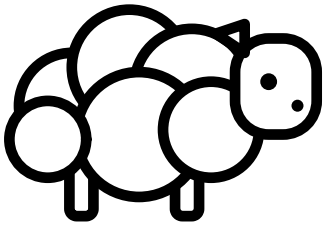


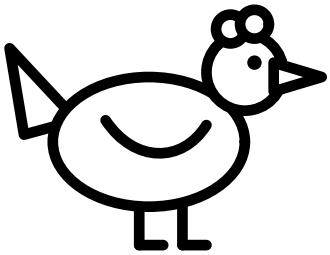


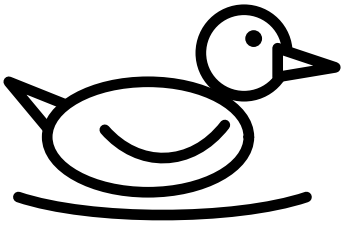
For the grown-up: Print on A4 at 100%. Pages go from easiest to hardest, so start at the front.
Suits ages 1-5.



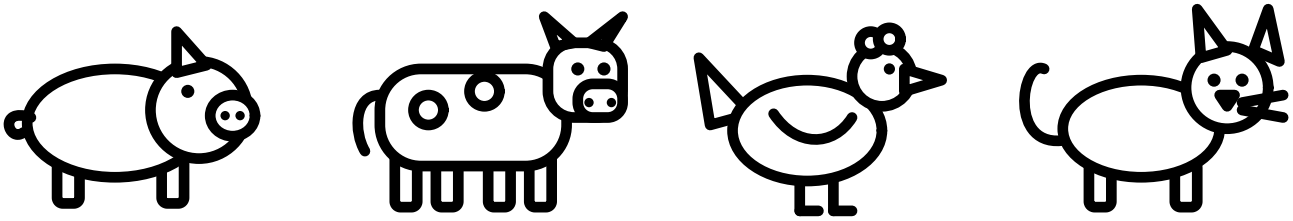




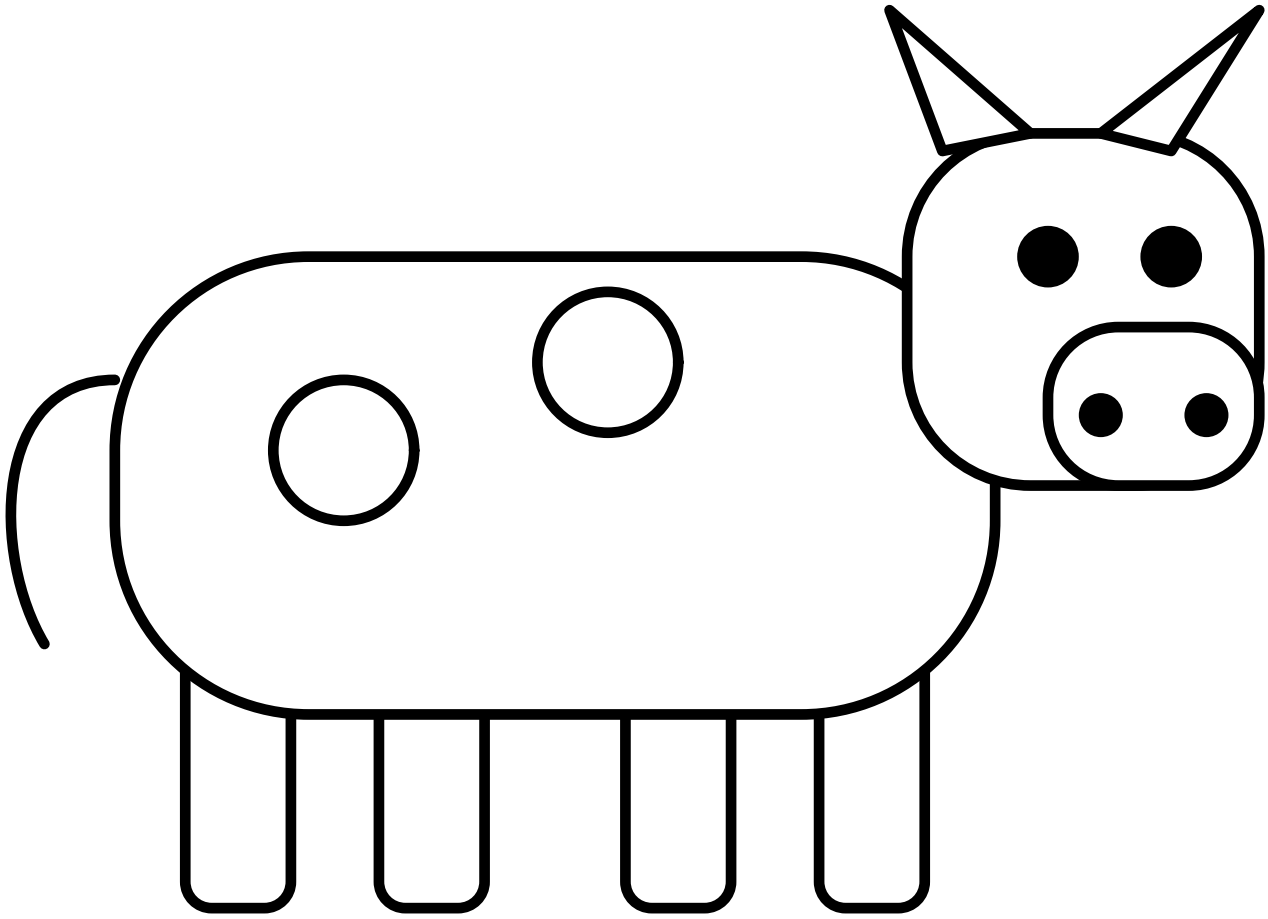




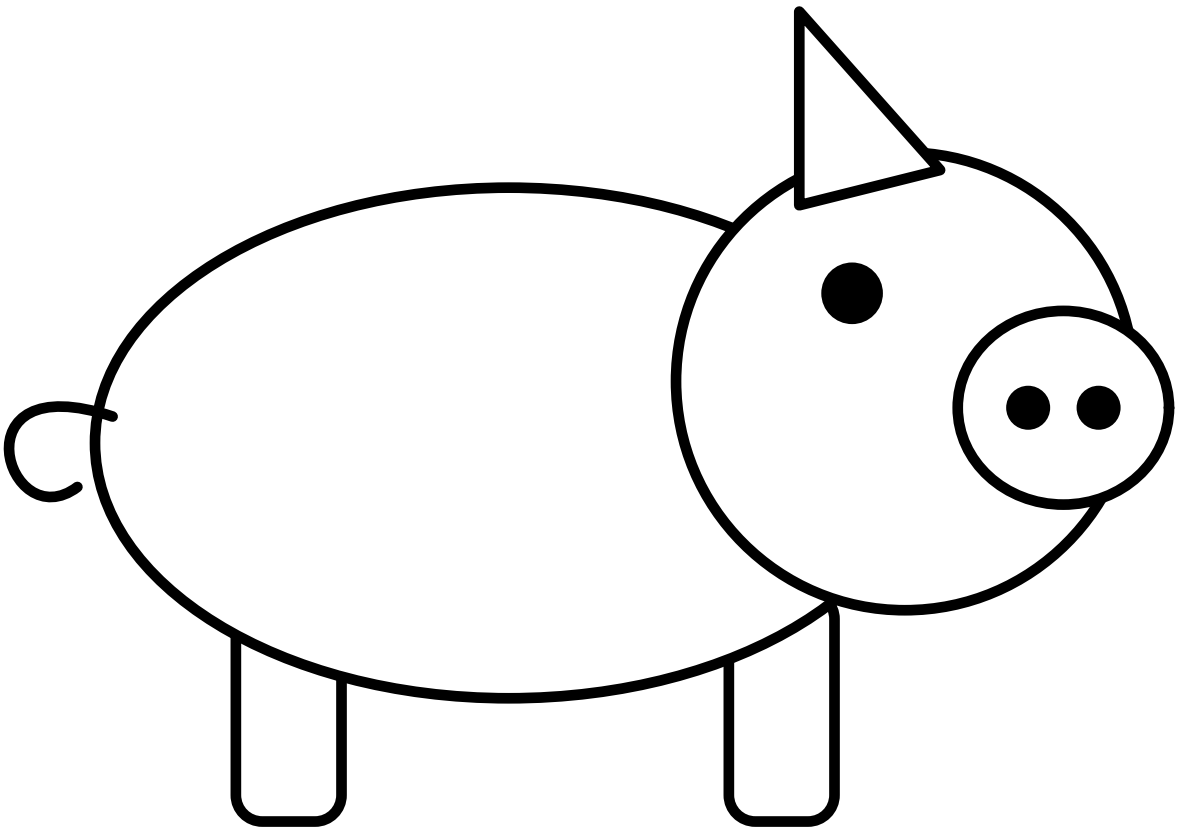
For the grown-up: Trace each path from the animal to the dot (the barn) with a fat crayon. Any wobbly line is a good line.
Suits ages 1-2.



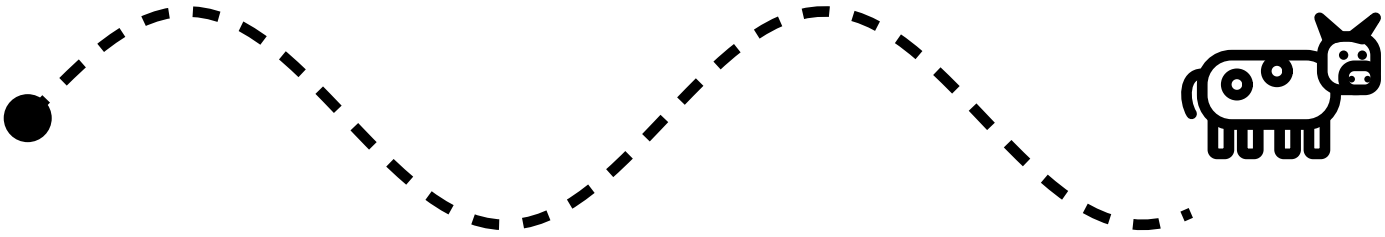
For the grown-up: Trace each path from the animal down to the dot. Let your child choose which animal goes first.
Suits ages 1-2.

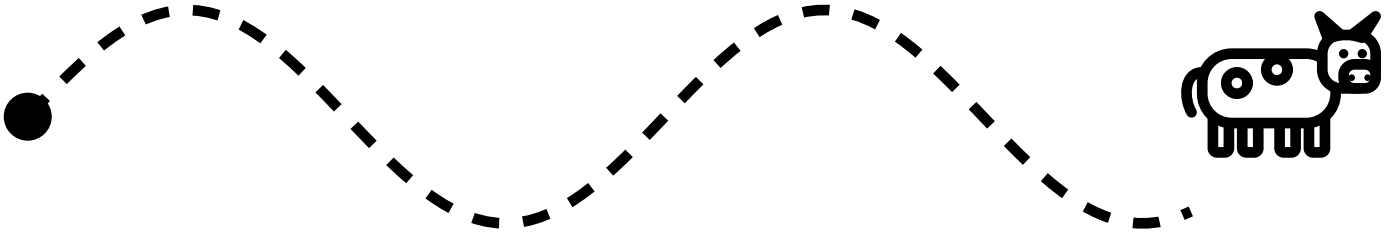


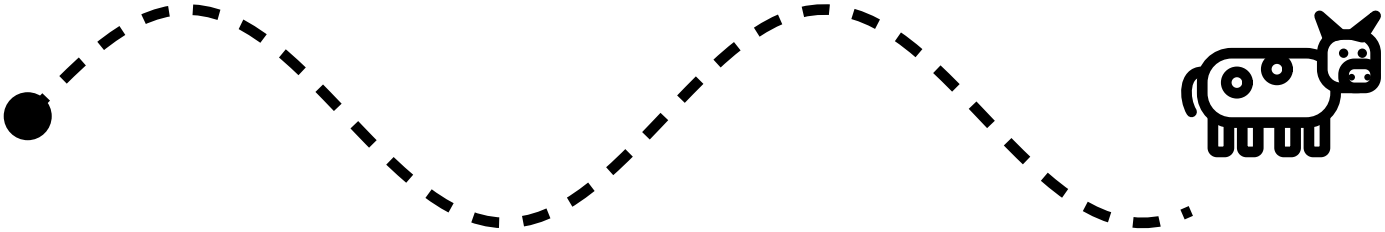
For the grown-up: Colour the cow with any crayon. Scribbling counts. Say moo together.
Suits ages 1-3.

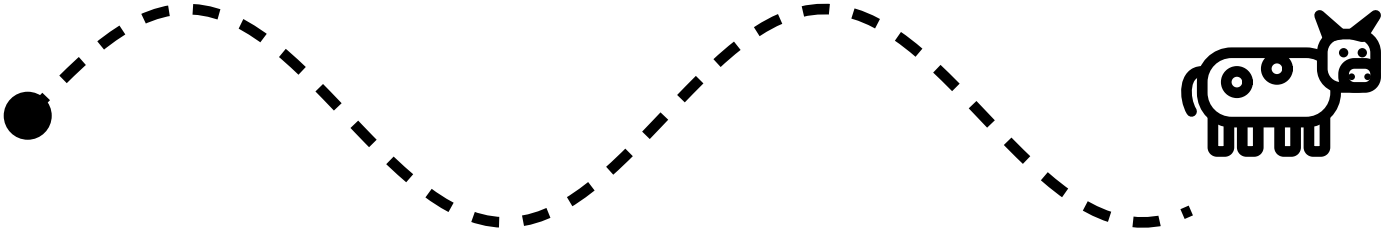


For the grown-up: Colour the pig. Ask what sound a pig makes and what colour it should be.
Suits ages 1-3.

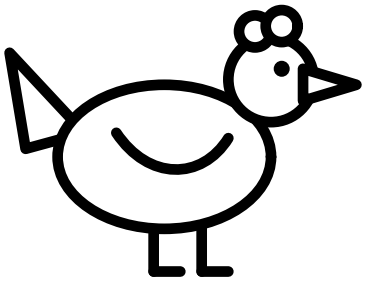


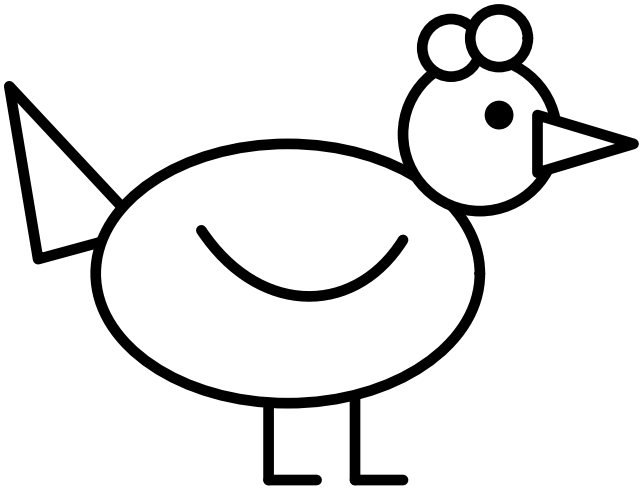


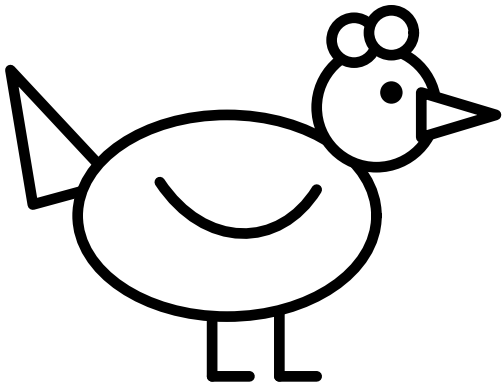




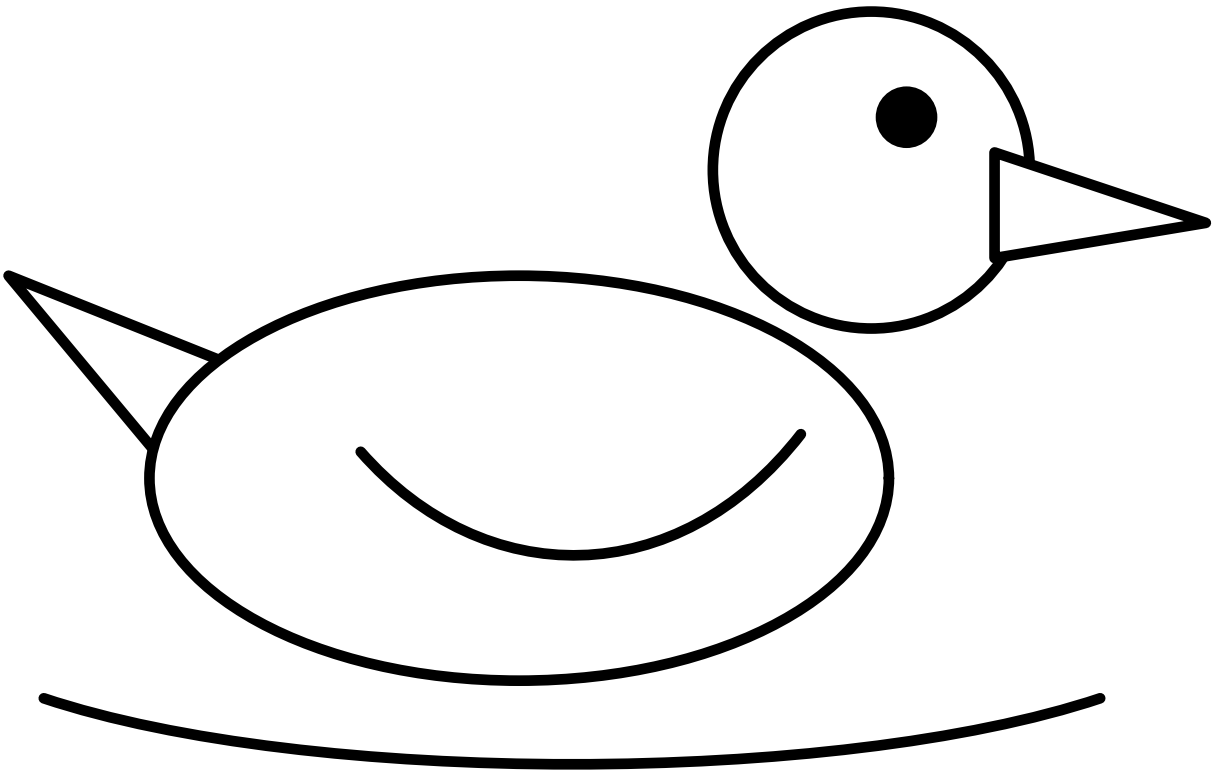
For the grown-up: Trace the hilly paths left to right. Say 'up and over' as the crayon climbs.
Suits ages 2-4.



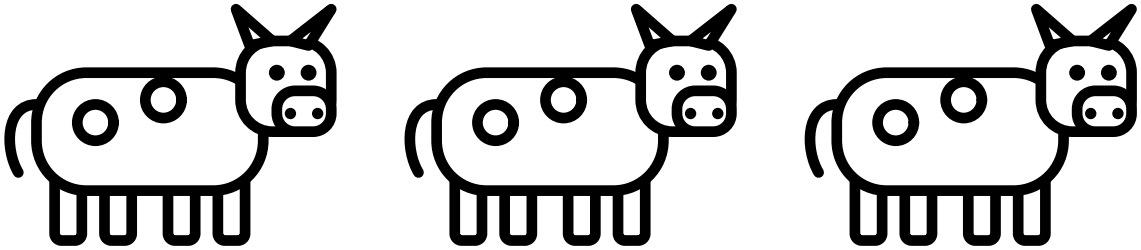




For the grown-up: Ask your child to circle the BIGGEST hen. The small ones are shown smaller on purpose.
Suits ages 2-4.

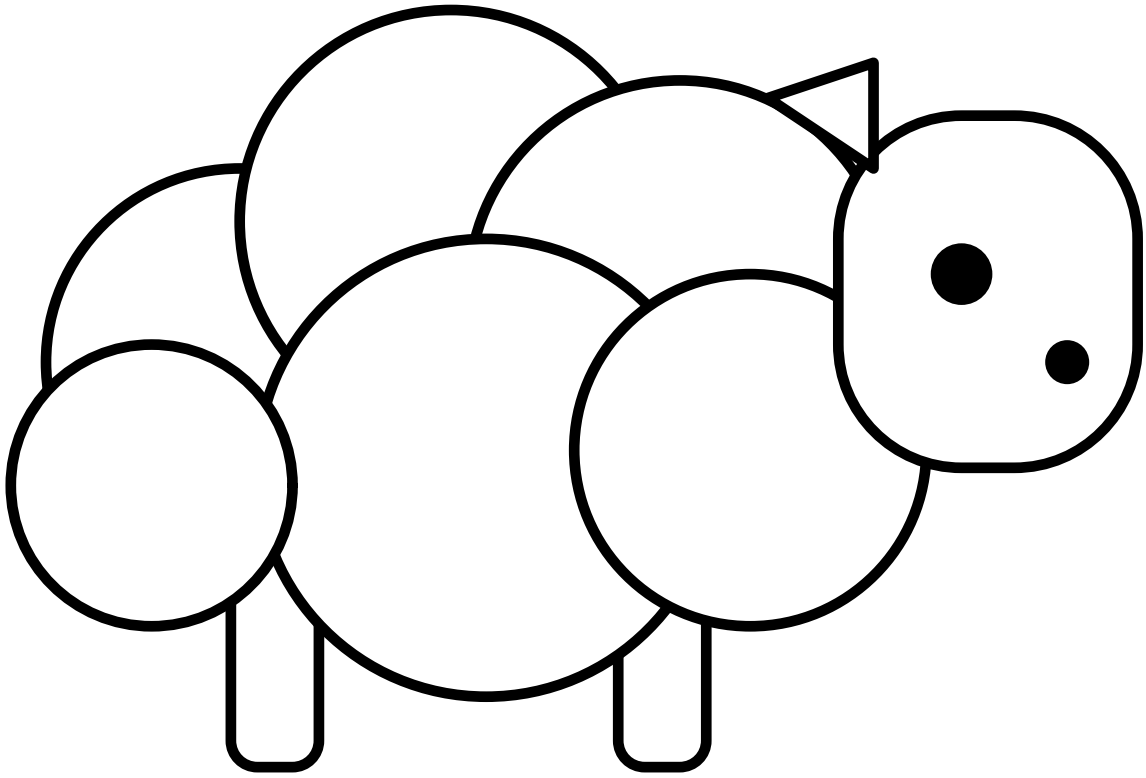


For the grown-up: Colour the duck. Talk about how ducks love to swim.
Suits ages 1-3.

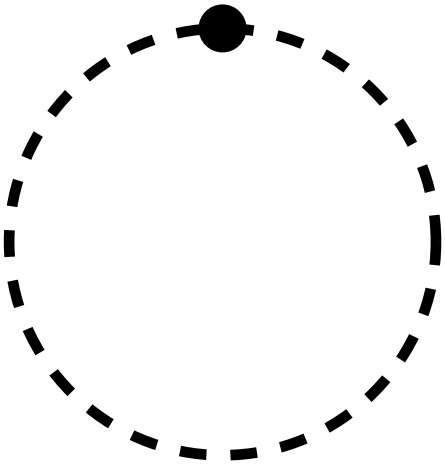


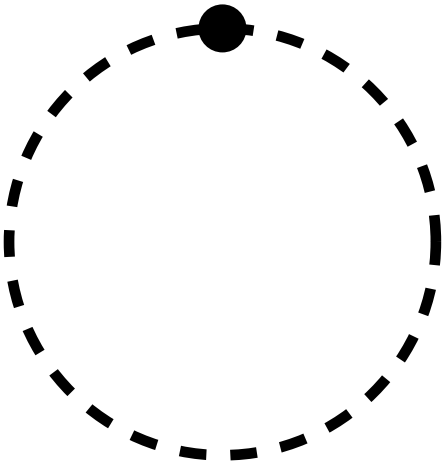
3

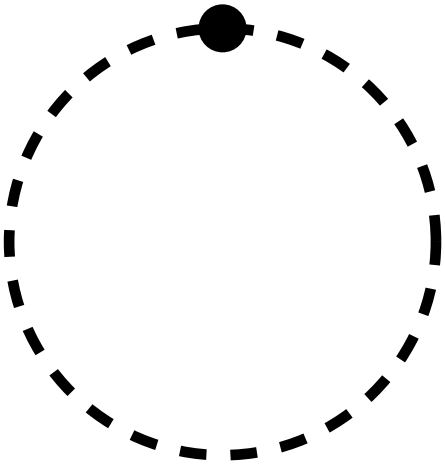
For the grown-up: Point to each cow and count out loud, then trace the big outlined 3.
Suits ages 2-4.

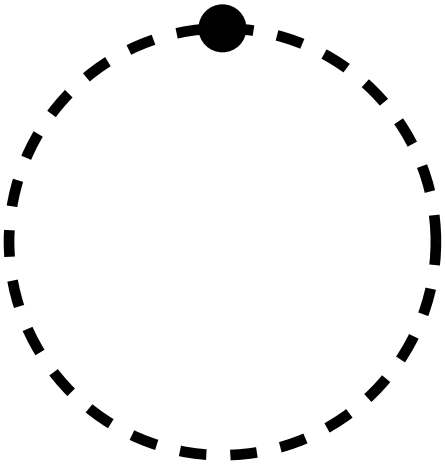


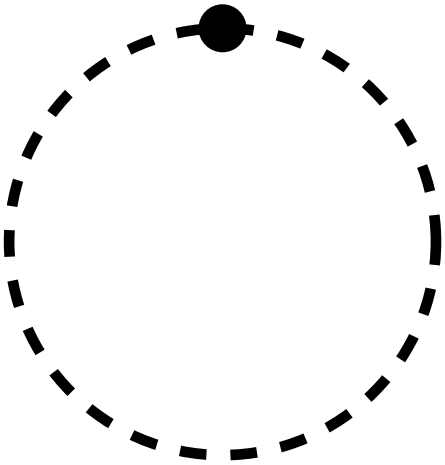
For the grown-up: Colour the sheep. Ask what sound it makes and what wool feels like.
Suits ages 1-3.

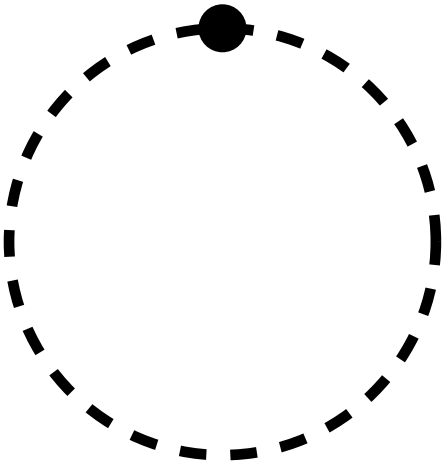




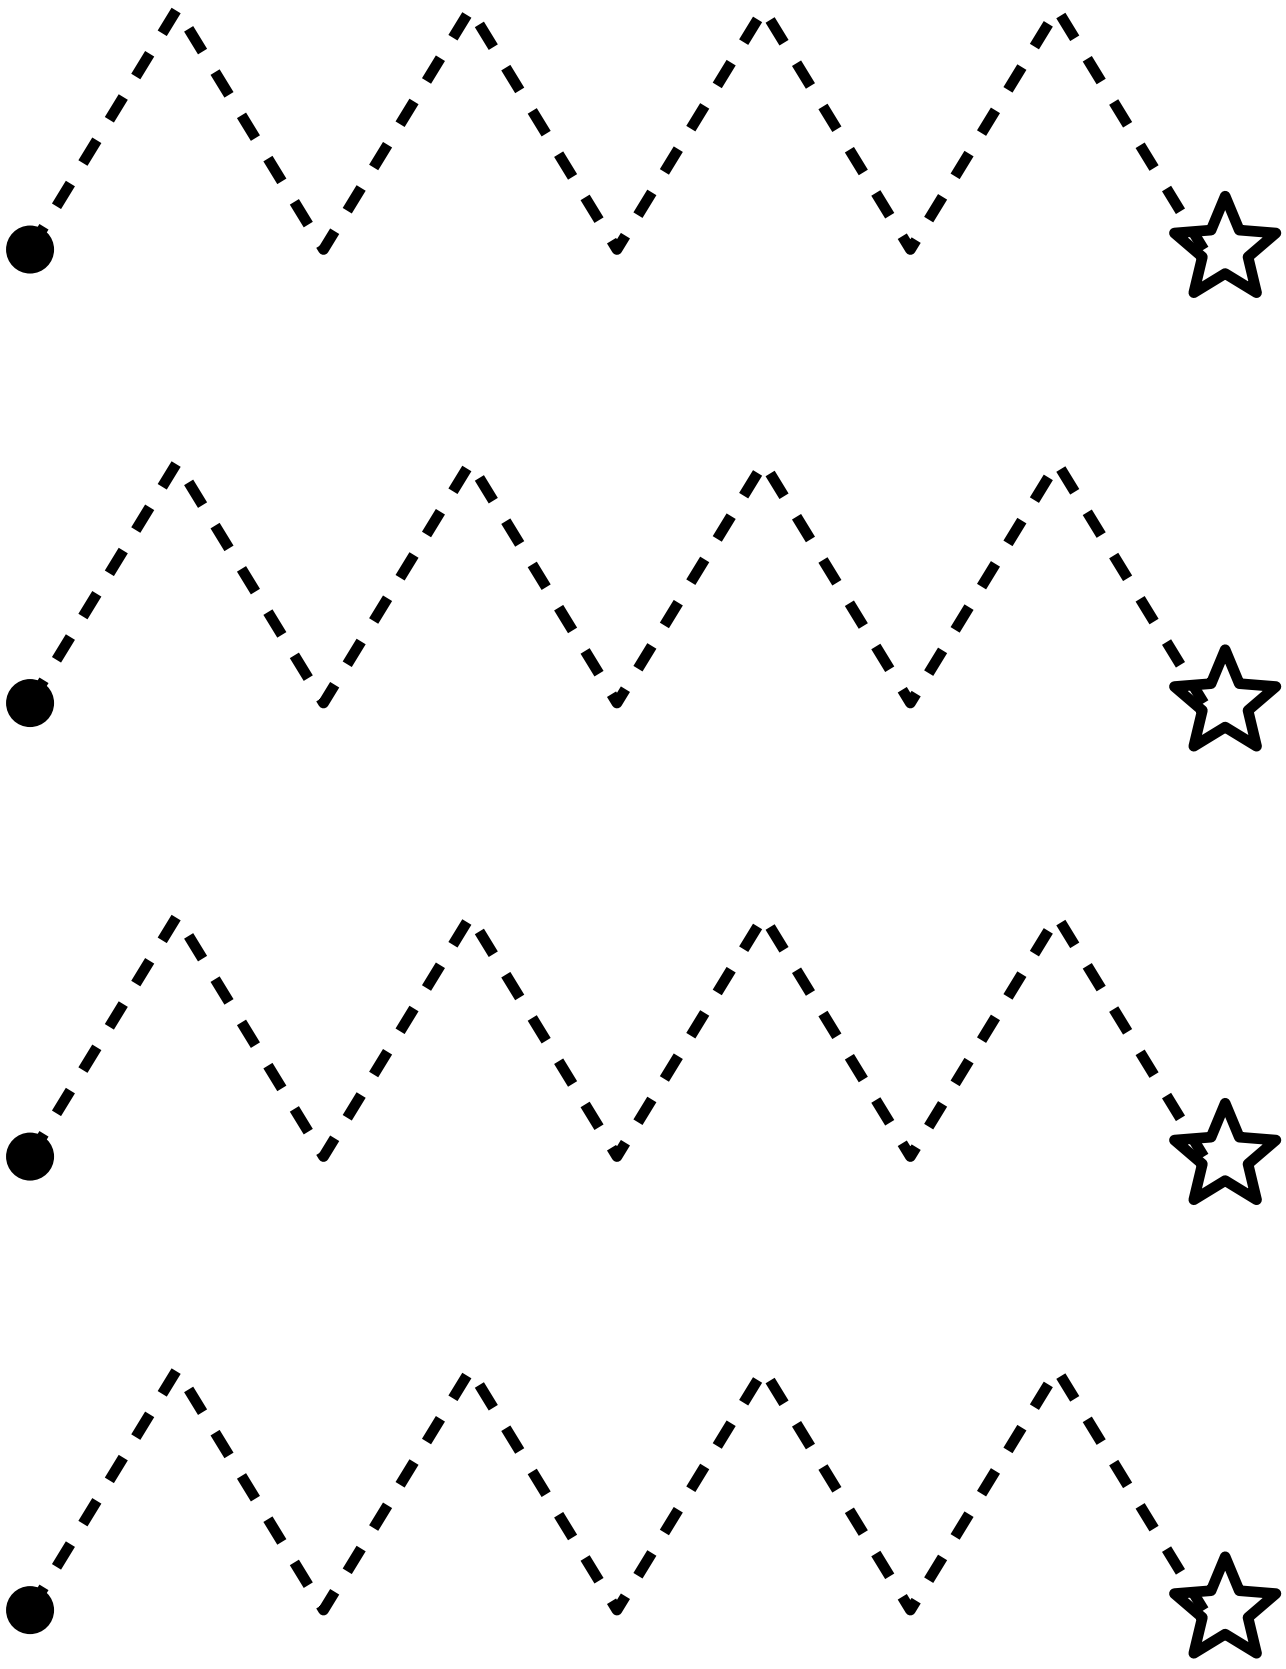




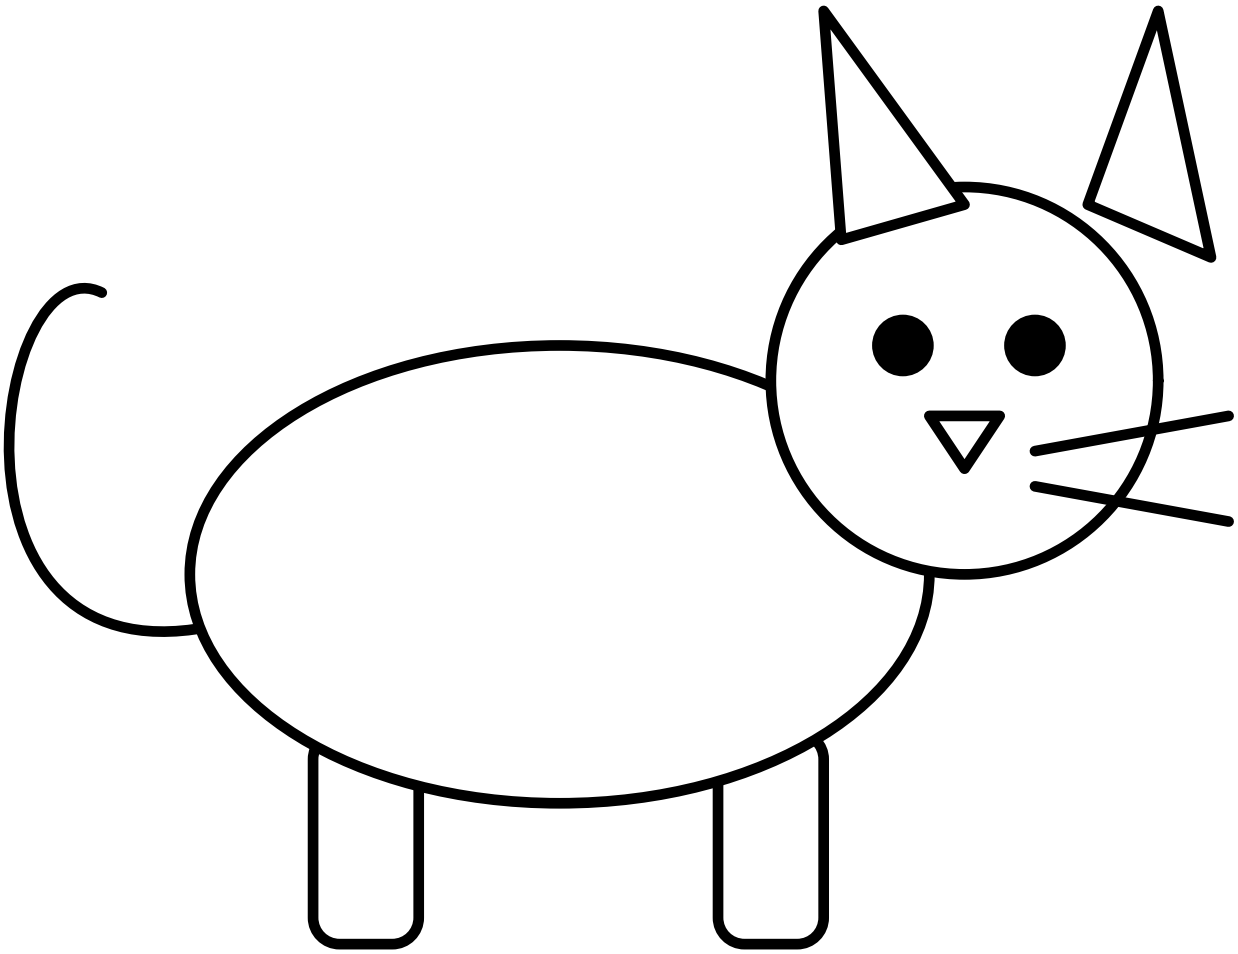




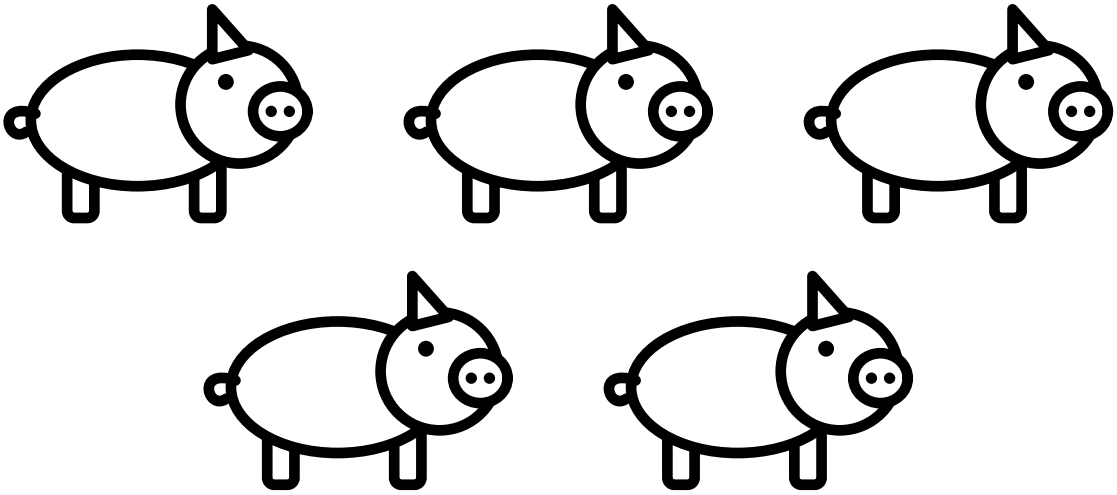
For the grown-up: Trace each circle starting at the dot, going round like a bale of hay.
Suits ages 2-4.



For the grown-up: Trace the bumpy paths from the dot to the star. 'Bump, bump, bump!'
Suits ages 2-4.

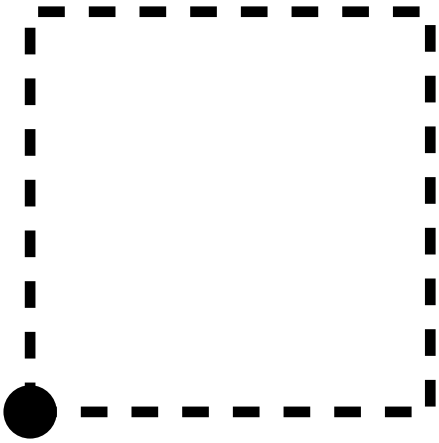


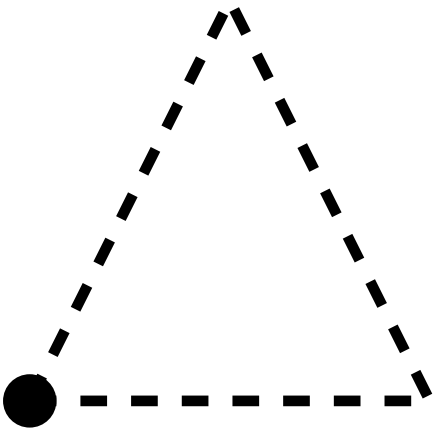
For the grown-up: Colour the cat. Practise a soft, gentle stroke like patting a real cat.
Suits ages 1-3.

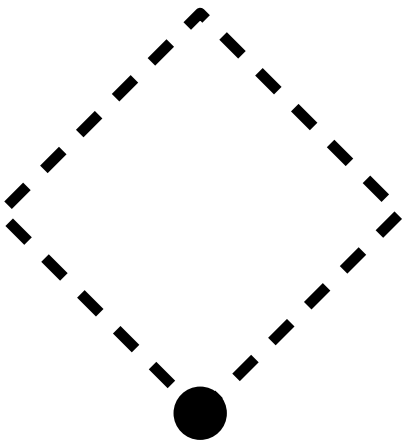


5

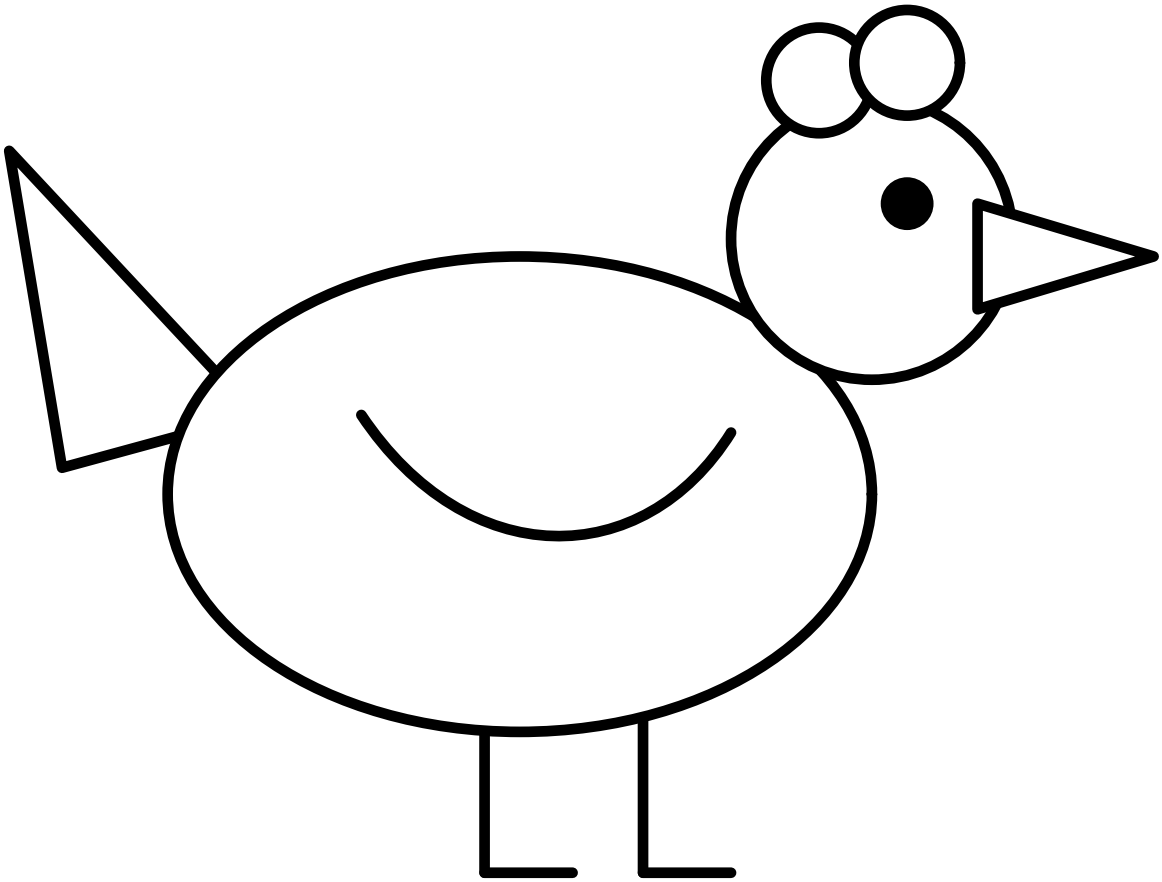
For the grown-up: Count the pigs together, then trace the big outlined 5.
Suits ages 2-4.



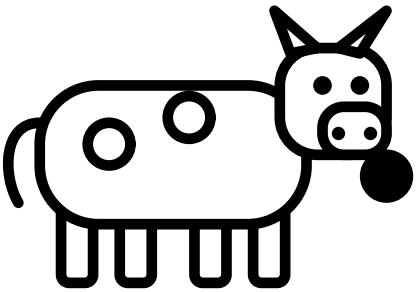


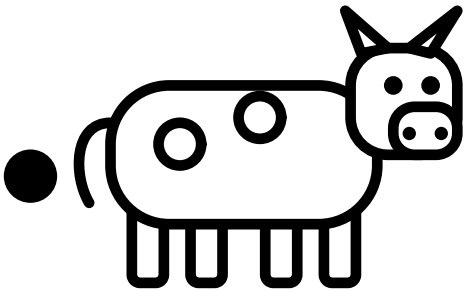


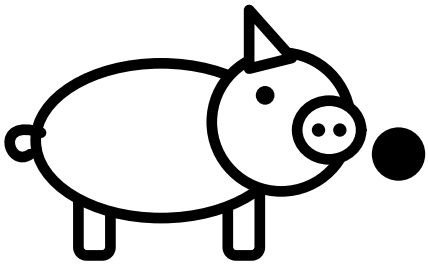
For the grown-up: Square, triangle, diamond, rectangle. Trace each from the dot and say its name.
Suits ages 3-5.

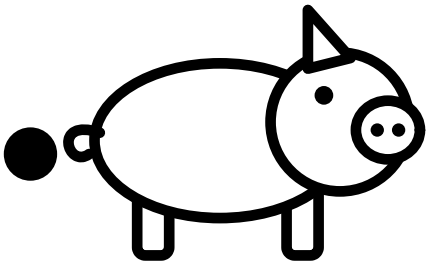


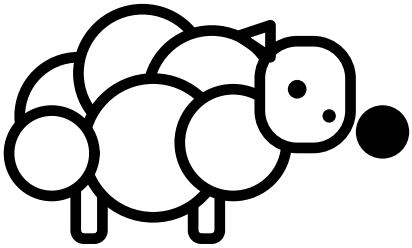
For the grown-up: Colour the hen. Ask what a hen gives us (eggs!).
Suits ages 2-5.

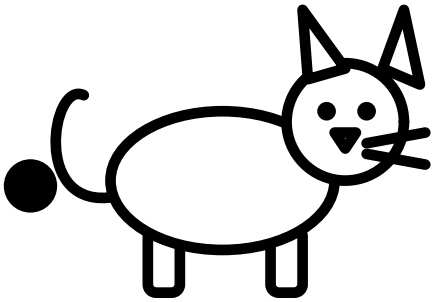


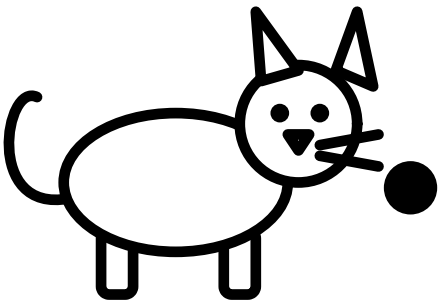


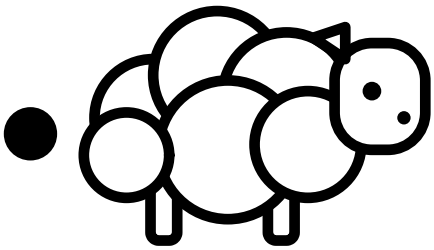




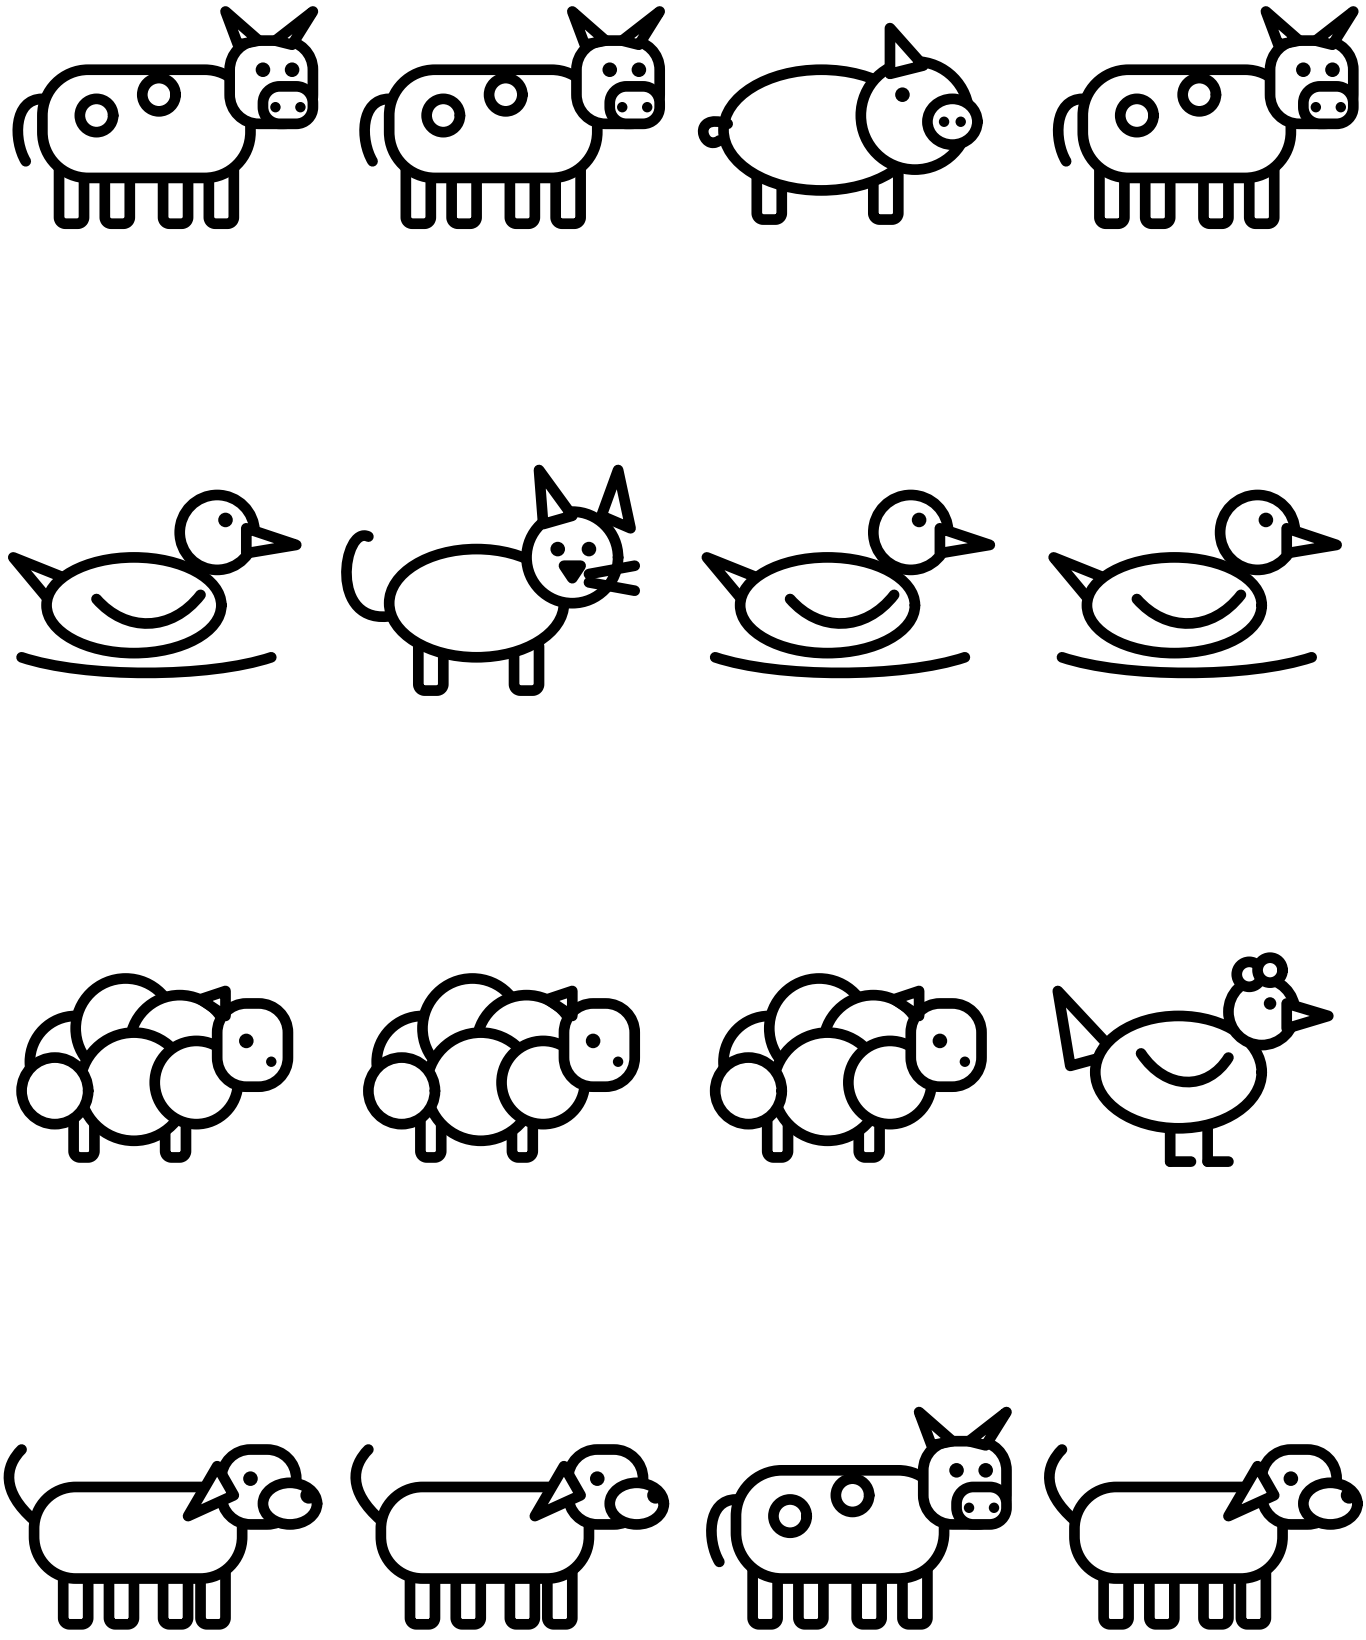




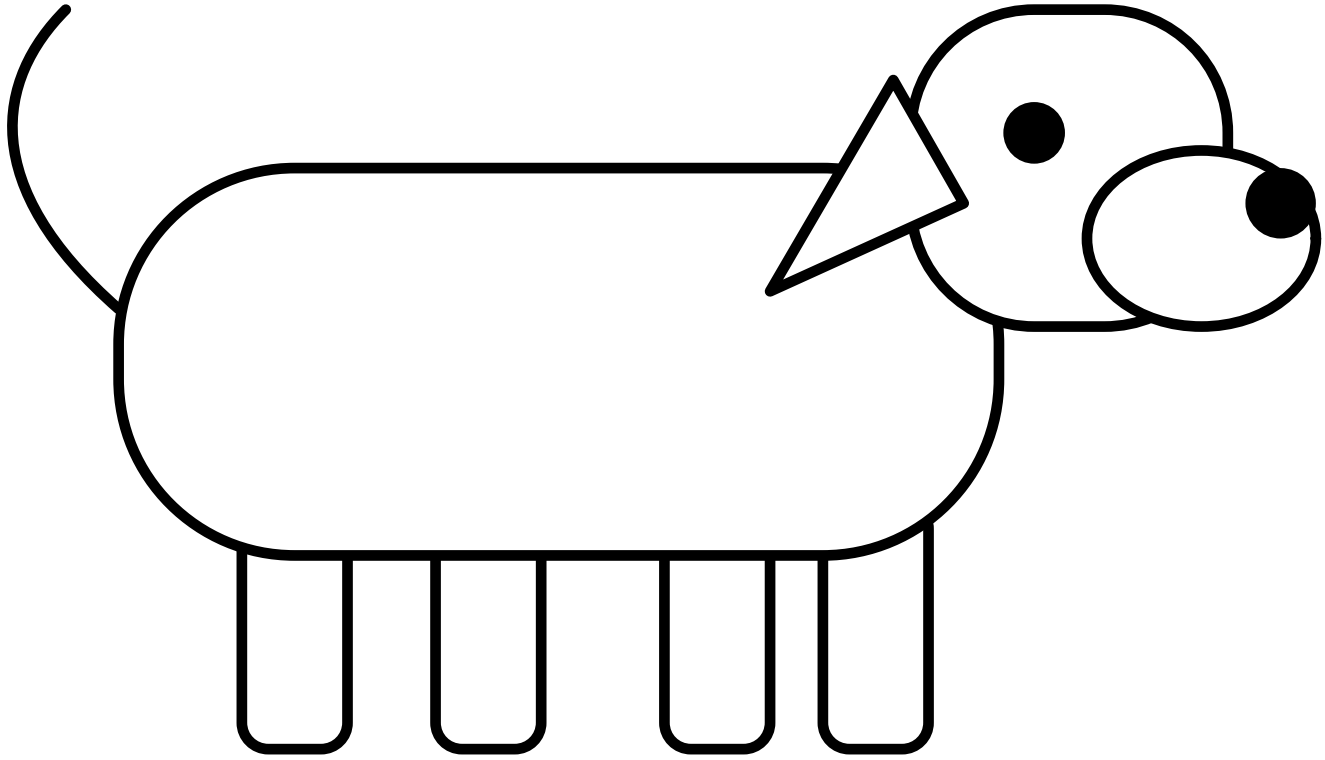




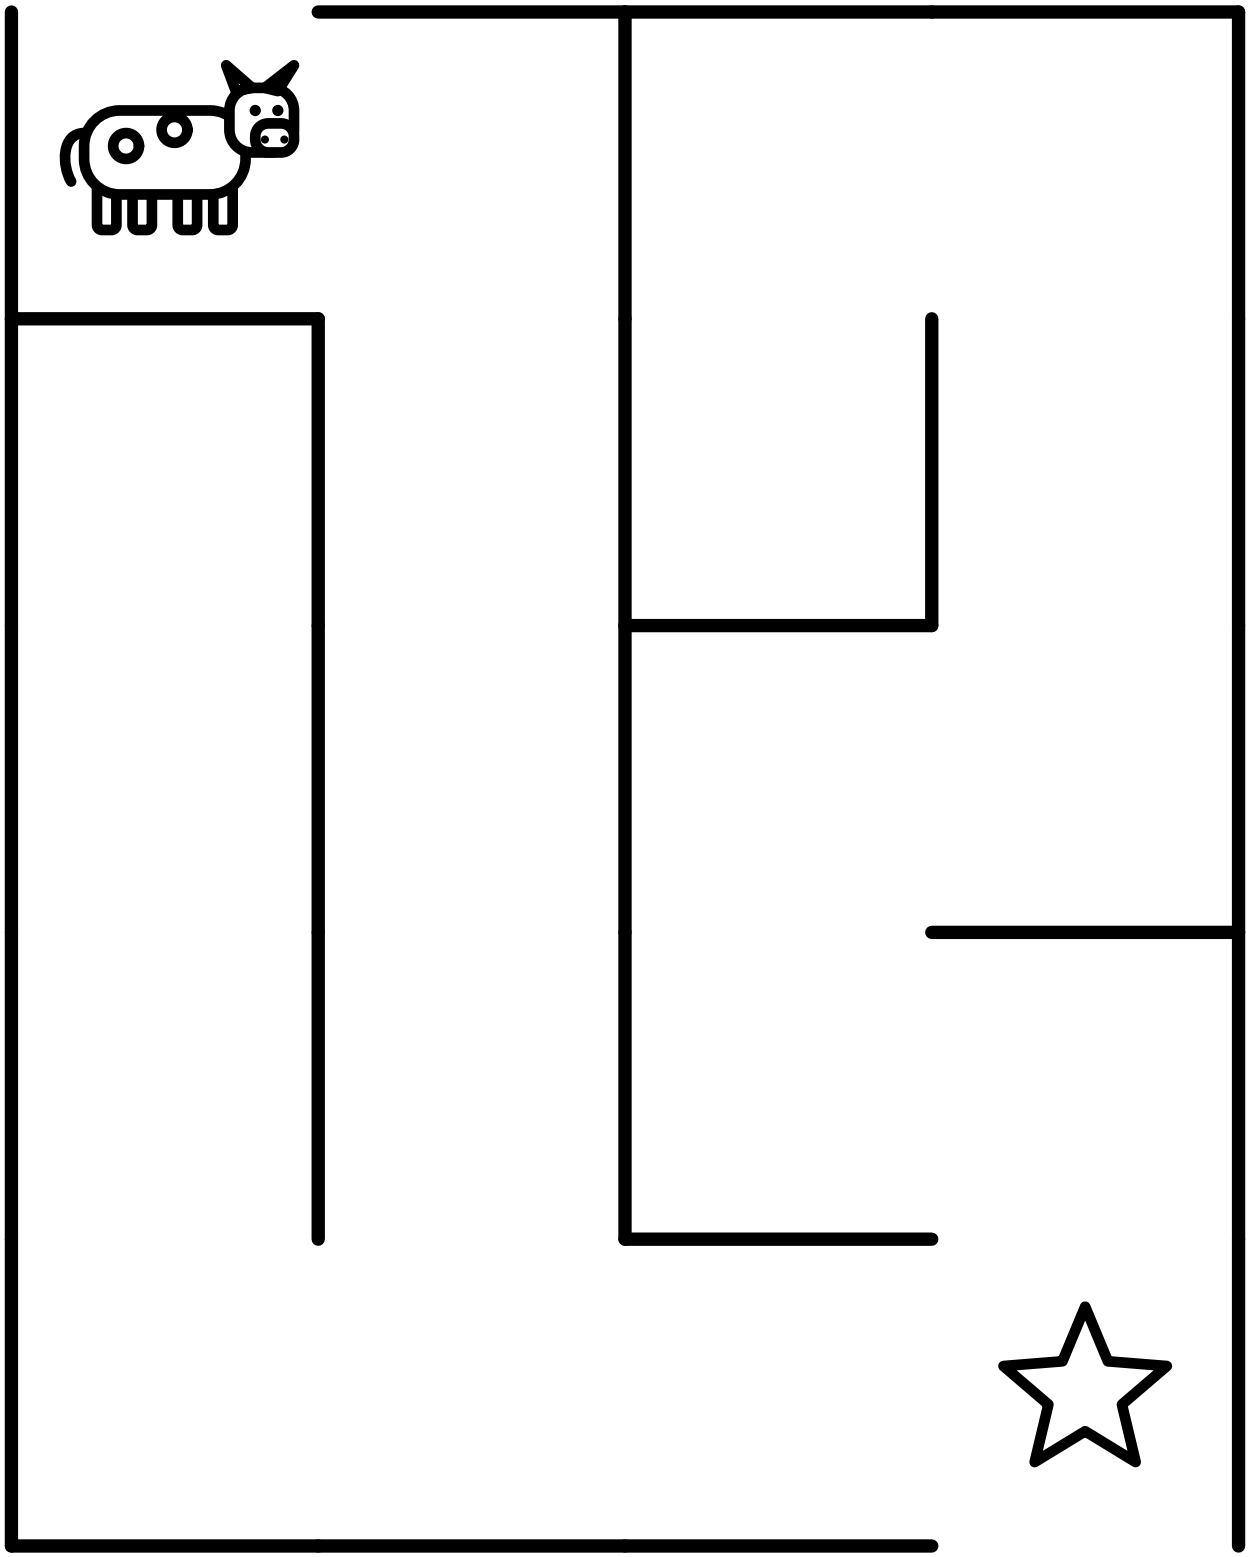
For the grown-up: Draw a line from each animal on the left to its matching twin on the right.
Suits ages 3-4.



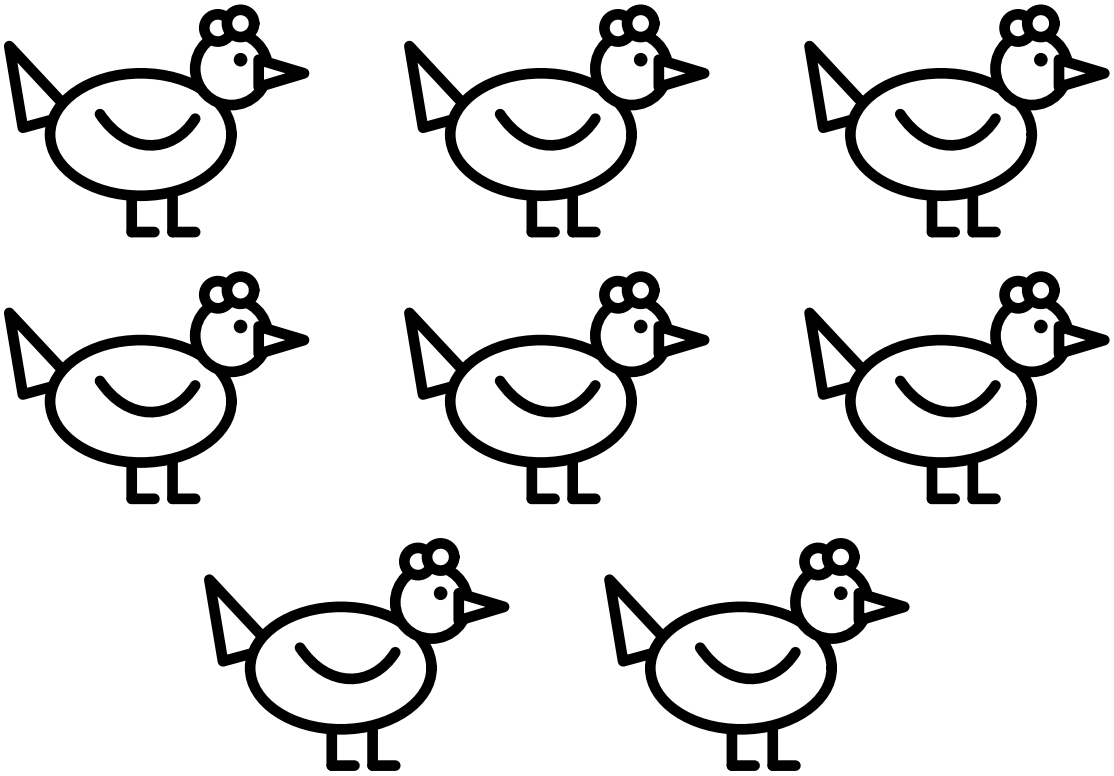
For the grown-up: Which one is different? Ask your child to circle it. Four rows, one odd animal each.
Suits ages 3-5.



For the grown-up: Colour the dog. Count the legs together: one, two, three, four.
Suits ages 2-5.

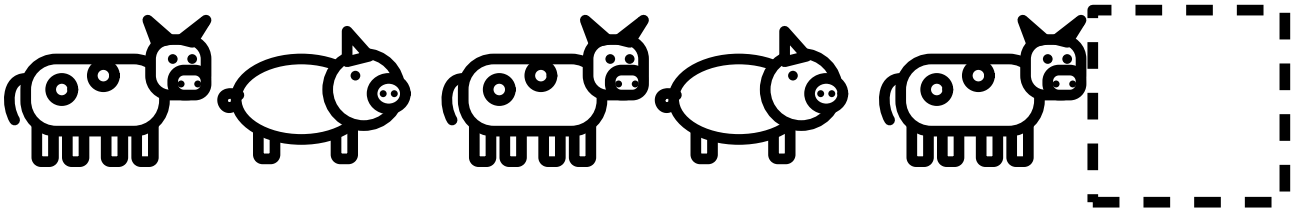


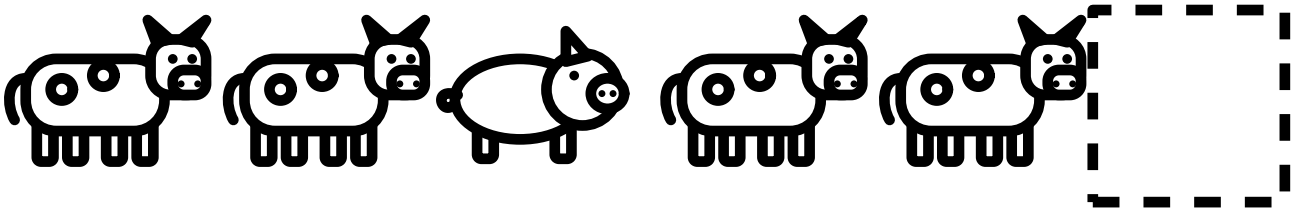
For the grown-up: Help the cow walk to the star without touching the walls. Trace with a finger first.
Suits ages 3-4.

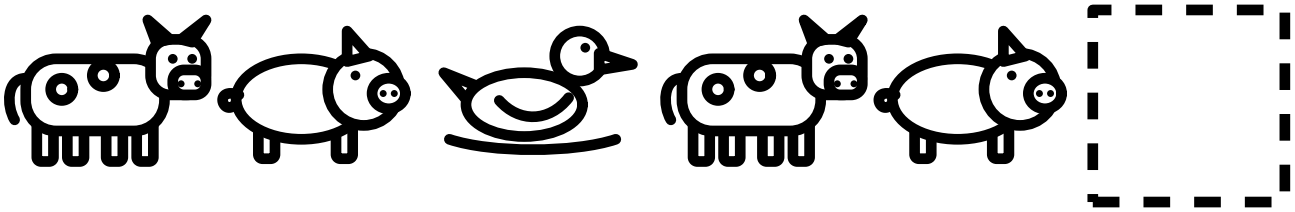


8

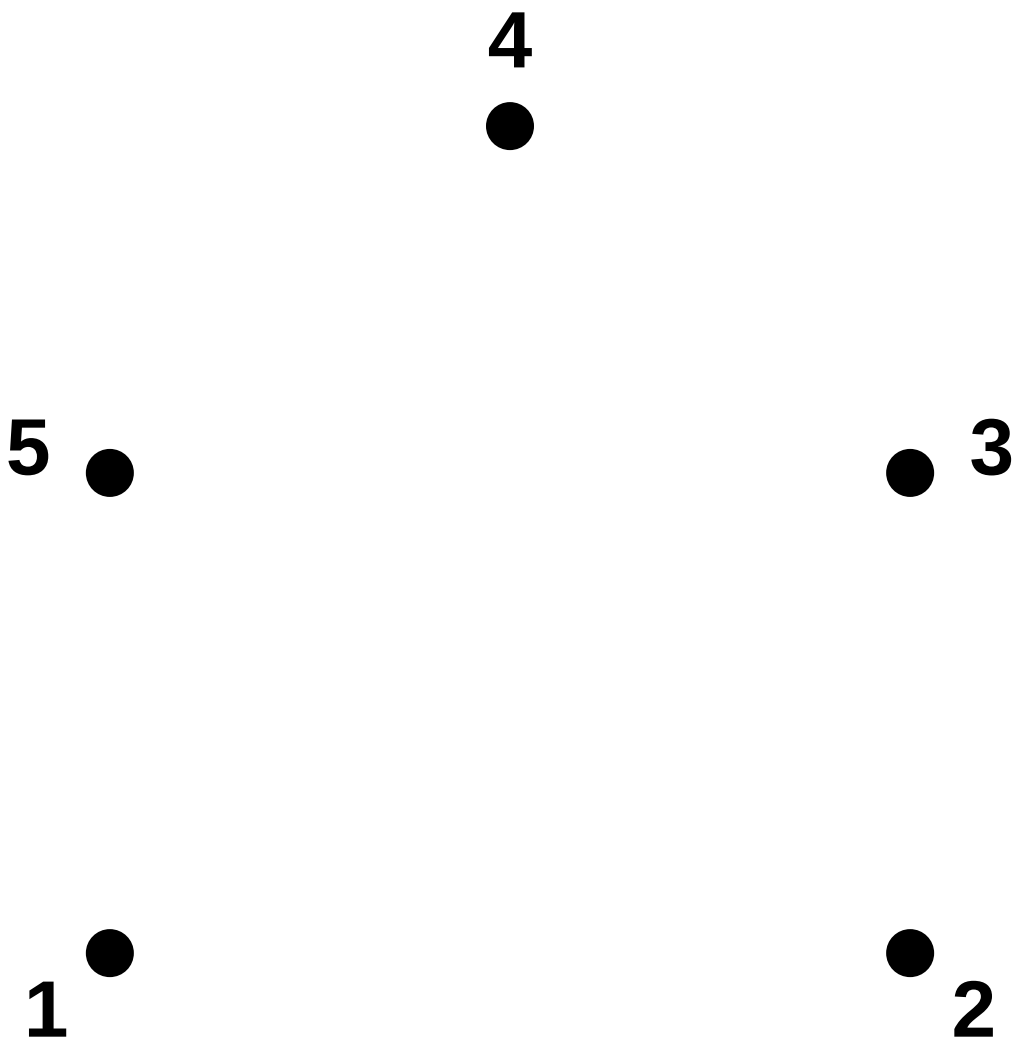
For the grown-up: Count the hens in rows, pointing at each. Then trace the big outlined 8.
Suits ages 3-5.



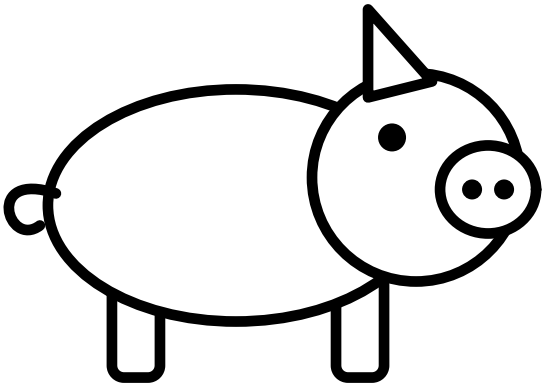


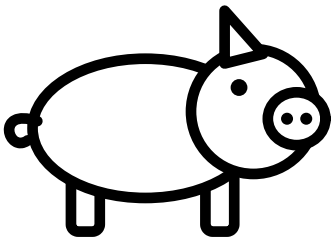


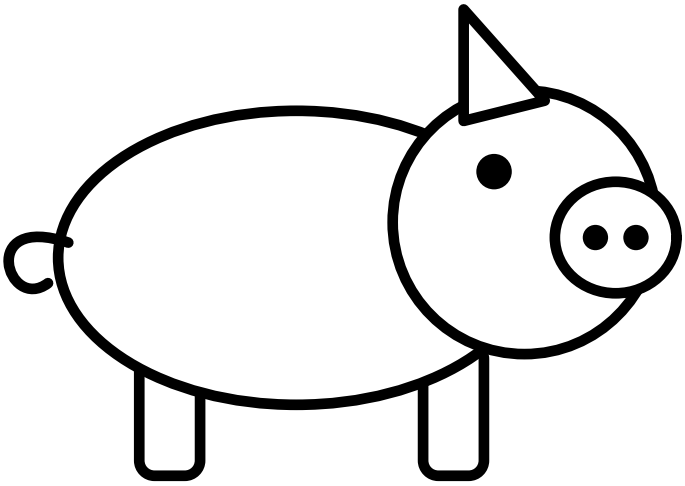
For the grown-up: What comes next in the pattern? Say it aloud together, then draw it in the dashed box.
Suits ages 4-5.



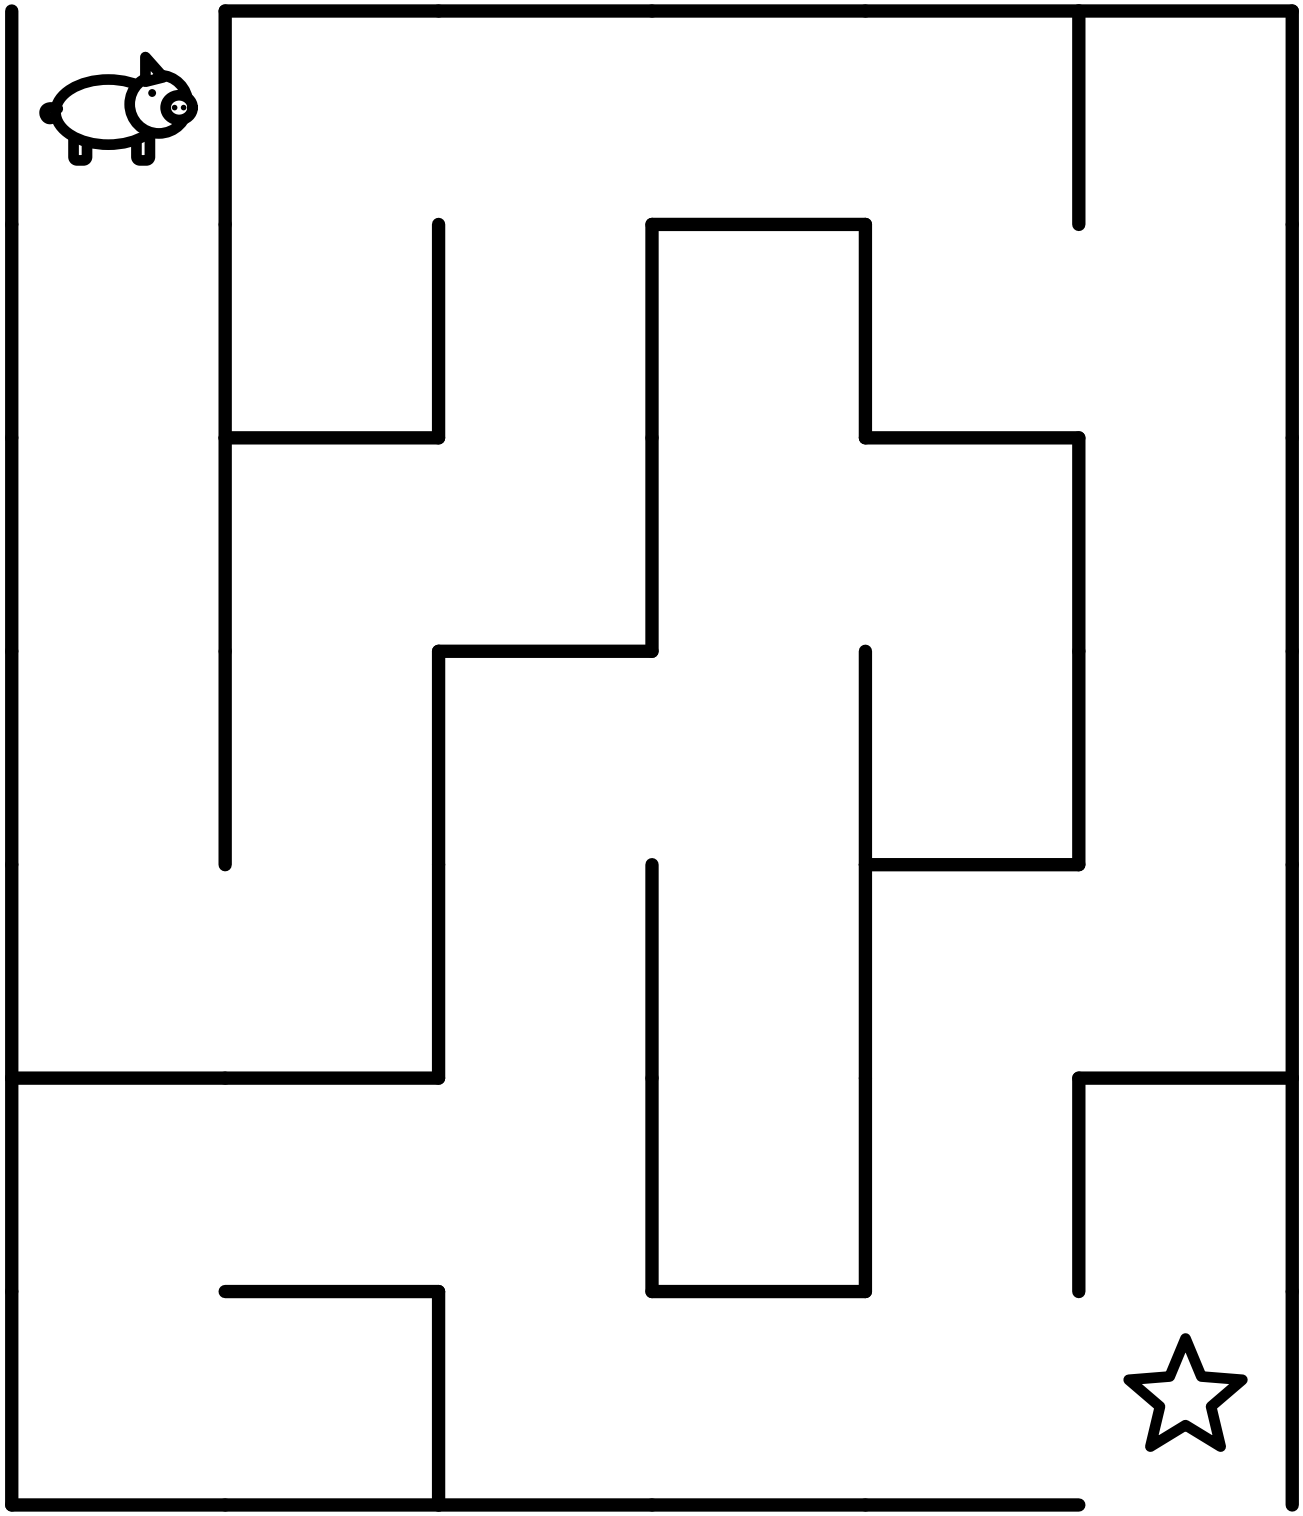
For the grown-up: Join the dots 1 to 5, then back to 1, to build a house for the pig.
Suits ages 3-5.



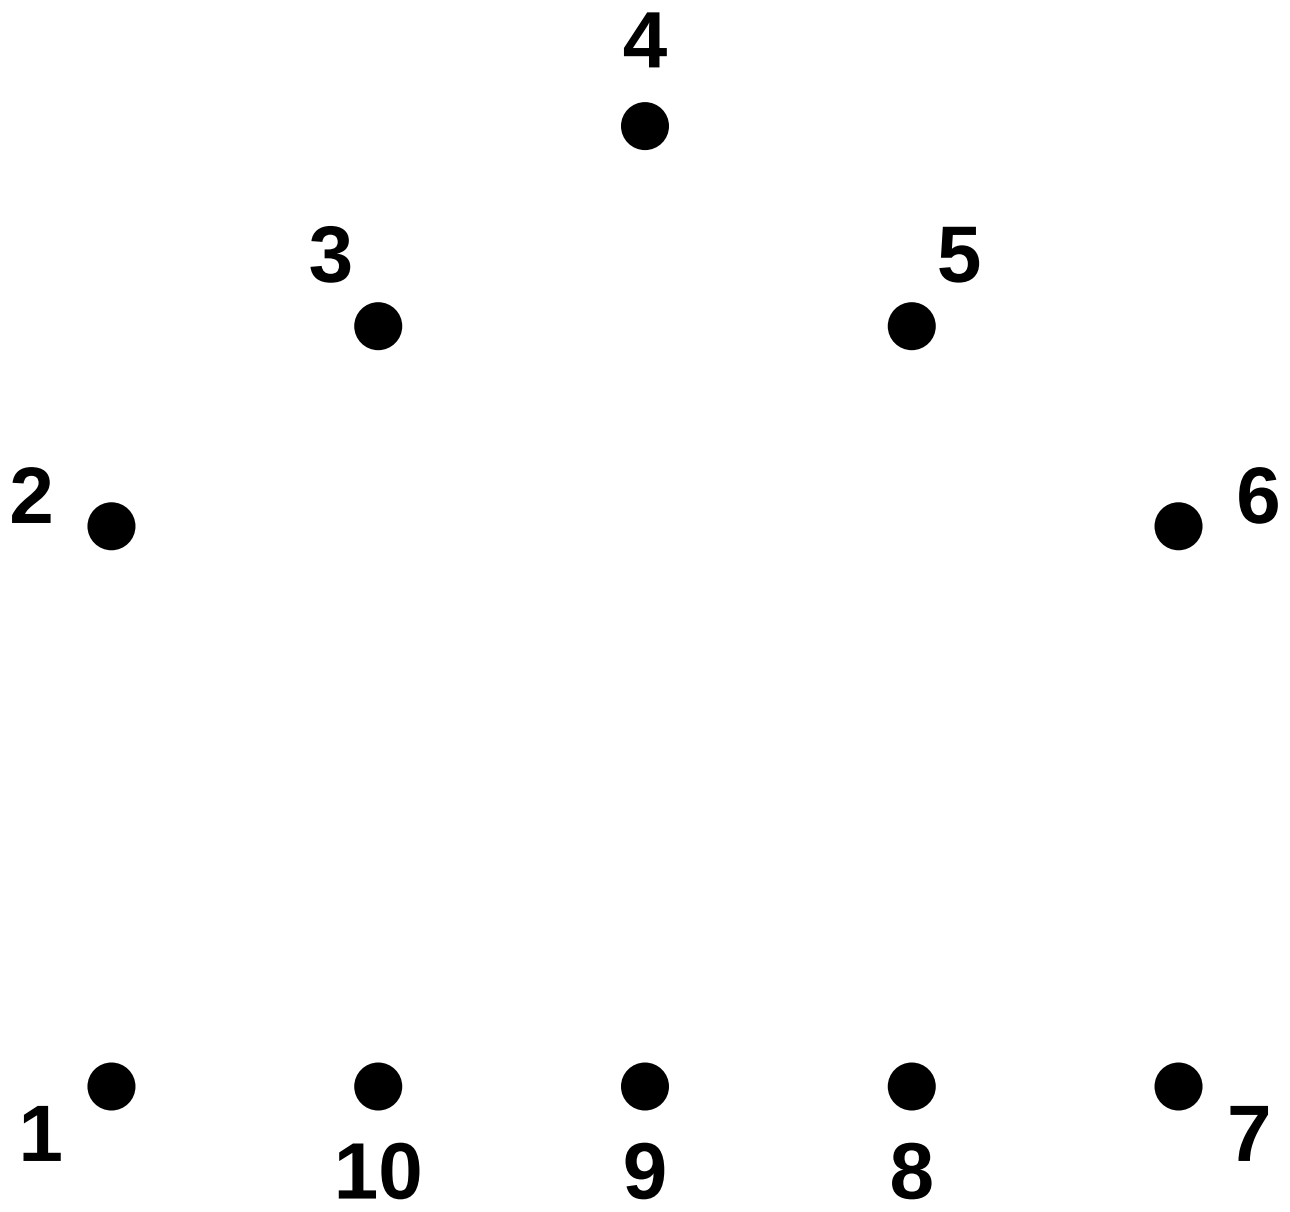




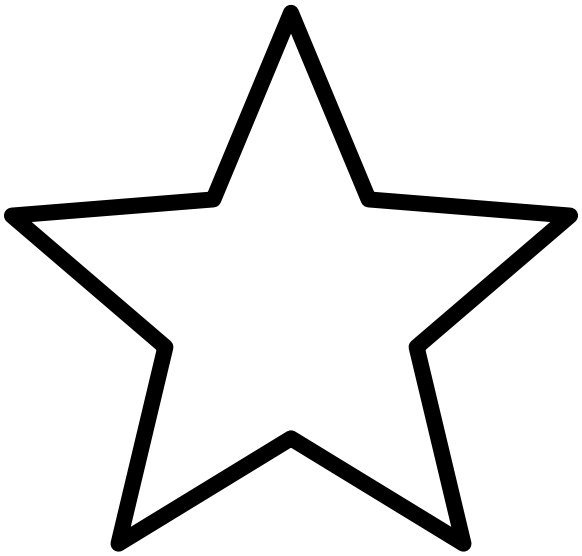
For the grown-up: Ask your child to circle the SMALLEST pig. Notice the middle-sized one too.
Suits ages 2-4.



For the grown-up: Help the pig find its way to the star. A pencil or crayon is good for this one.
Suits ages 4-5.



For the grown-up: Join the dots 1 to 10, then back to 1, to build the barn.
Suits ages 4-5.



Well done!
